

CALLS BOND LIMIT CRIME AGAINST CIVIC PROGRESS

J. Horace McFarland Talks of Fort Wayne's Wonderful Possibilities and Opportunities.

(By HARRY M. WILLIAMS.)

Washington, Dec. 16.—"That a fine, growing and wealthy city like Fort Wayne is limited to 2 per cent bonding capacity is worse than ridiculous. It is a crime against civic progress."

So spoke J. Horace McFarland, president of the American Civic association, in discussing the proposals for civic improvements in Fort Wayne and the limitations which the several projects involved in the general scheme are involved. Mr. McFarland has just been re-elected president of the American Civic association which yesterday closed its annual convention in this city. He will visit Fort Wayne near the latter part of next month to make a brief survey of the city, its conditions, its possibilities and its projects and to deliver an address in behalf of the work the local Civic improvement association has in hand.

"From what information has been given me," said Mr. McFarland, "I am convinced that Fort Wayne not only wonderful possibilities for the development of physical beauty but in the present aroused state of public feeling a still more wonderful opportunity to realize all that her progressive, enlightened and energetic citizens are planning to bring about. It would be a reproach to the community if the movement that has gathered so much force and already has made so much headway were to finally come to no result. The people of Fort Wayne must not let their great project issue in such a manner. They must procure the means and go forward with their splendid labors to a complete fruition of the task."

Natural Assets Phenomenal. "I know of no city in the country of Fort Wayne's class which has such wealth of assets in natural beauty. I have just examined the report of Mr. Charles Mulford Robinson and the results of his survey in Fort Wayne and his plans for beautification of the city. Surely it opens a wide vista of magnificent opportunity for Fort Wayne. The city, with its many miles of water frontage, has what other cities by the score and many of them much larger than Fort Wayne would give millions to possess and would spend other millions to beautify."

"The projects for sewer development, park extensions and erections and river beautification surely embrace a scheme that should arouse the civic pride of Fort Wayne people to a lofty pitch. "As to the financial means of procuring all these things and the city's resources I cannot speak with definiteness at this time; but I am sure that, confronted with so much that ought to be done and so much more that it seems the enterprising and public-spirited people of Fort Wayne want to do, there can be no place for judgment of doubt that the largest and richest city of Northern Indiana is not going to write failure as the final to the splendid effort that is now being put forth. That a city of seventy thousand people and an assessed valuation of more than thirty-five millions has legal capacity to raise less than three hundred thousand dollars for civic betterments is a shame."

J. HORACE MCFARLAND, American Civic Association President Who Comments Fort Wayne for Civic Improvement Work.

It is more than that; it is a crime against civic progress. The people of Fort Wayne must find a way to get what they want. With 700 Other Cities. "Fort Wayne has entered into fellowship with seven hundred other American cities that are now affiliated with the American Civic association. These cities, all of them, in one way and another are striving to reach a higher plane of civic existence. Some of them have vast schemes of improvement afoot and are daily going near the goal of realization. Today one hundred cities of the United States are aggressively and progressively engaged with great projects in city planning. A great many of them already have much to show for their efforts, others have their plans well-matured and under way, and still others are working out their projects to the point where actual work of realization can be started. These cities are looking far into the future. They are lifting themselves above the sordid aspect of life and more and more taking note of the community as a place for human beings—for men and women and children—and not merely a place in which to dwell and make money. Nor is that contemplation of community life wholly altruistic. A dominant note in the discussions of our convention which has just closed was that human happiness is one of the paramount assets of

WHERE THOUSANDS OF POOR ARE MADE HAPPY BY SWEET CHARITY

WAITING FOR THE SALVATION ARMY CHRISTMAS DINNER AT GRAND CENTRAL PALACE.

One of the principal institutions of charity to cheer the hearts of New York's poor on Christmas Day is the Salvation Army. Tears of gratitude and laughs of joy are always in evidence on that day at the various distribution headquarters of the Army. Baskets filled with good things to eat are given to all who are known to need charity, and a fair idea of the number of applicants may be gathered from the above photograph. The baskets are of various sizes, and their contents are usually in proportion to the needs of the person receiving. Some of them are filled at a cost of $5, while others cost $3, but there is always enough in each of even the smallest baskets to serve a family of four or five well for several days.

Commander Eva Booth takes personal charge of distributing the baskets at the main headquarters of the Salvation Army, and a photograph showing her in the role of Lady Bountiful is presented herewith.

RUSSIA THREATENS ENDING OF FRIENDSHIP WITH U. S.

Senate May Modify Sulzer Resolutions and Keep Treaty With Czar-- Action Monday.

Washington, Dec. 16.—What in diplomatic languages is interpreted here as practically a threat by Russia to sever all friendly relations with the United States in the event that congress goes ahead with its plan to abrogate the treaty of 1832 with that country has been made to President Taft and Secretary of State Knox by the Russian ambassador, George Bakhteff.

Mr. Bakhteff protested against the Sulzer resolution for the abrogation of the treaty on the ground that its final adoption would be inconsistent with the long friendship that has existed between the United States and Russia. While neither the president nor Secretary Knox were alarmed today over the turn of affairs, it was said at the white house that a determined effort would be made by the senate leaders to modify the Sulzer resolution.

Owing to the reticence of all concerned in the negotiations it was impossible to learn the exact nature of the protest. It is believed, however, to have been directed principally against the language of the Sulzer resolution which boldly declares that Russia had violated the terms of the treaty in 1832. When informed of this, Mr. Sulzer, chairman of the house committee on foreign relations, declared he saw nothing insulting to "sensitive Russia" in his resolution and believed it would go through the senate without modification. Action on the Russia treaty is scheduled in the senate for Monday next, but it was indicated today that consideration of the subject might be delayed beyond that time. Meanwhile, President Taft and Mr. Knox are continuing diplomatic negotiations with Russia both here and in St. Petersburg through the ambassador there.

That the United States was leaning strongly to the hope that American Ambassador Guild would be successful in obtaining a modification of the passport regulation with the St. Petersburg government, was indicated by a member of the cabinet today. One basis of settlement suggested was that the Russian government agree to admit to Russia American Jews whose character an standing was vouched for by the United States. It was the belief here today that this suggestion had been offered by Ambassador Guild and that it was being considered by the Russian foreign office.

WAS AWARDED A MEDAL.

William Oppenheimer, Former Fort Wayne Architect, Wins Honor.

William Oppenheimer, formerly an architect in Fort Wayne, but now located in Chicago, has just been awarded a medal for his design in New York with the additional distinction of being the only Chicago man to receive the award. Mr. Oppenheimer is a registered member of the American Society of Beaux-Arts Architects with headquarters in New York.

VANDERBILT UNDER THE KNIFE.

New York, Dec. 16.—An operation for appendicitis was performed today upon Cornelius Vanderbilt at his Fifth avenue home by Dr. Austin Flint, jr., assisted by several other surgeons. Mr. Vanderbilt was stricken three days ago.

STOKES SHOOTERS ARE ACQUITTED

After an Hour's Consideration Jury Frees Pretty Show Girls.

BIG CROWDS CHEER

New York, Dec. 16.—"Not guilty" was the verdict returned late yesterday by the jury in the trial against Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad, charged with shooting E. D. Stokes, the millionaire sportsman.

The jury reached its verdict in fifty-eight minutes. The show girls were tried on an indictment of three counts, the first charging an attempt to murder Stokes. Of consideration of this count, however, the jurors were relieved by Justice Marcus, at the request of the district attorney.

The court restricted the jury to the second and third counts, which charged assault in the first degree with intent to kill, and assault in the second degree with intent to do bodily injury.

While the jury was deliberating the defendants were held prisoners in an adjoining room. Waiting was an ordeal for both.

When summoned to hear the verdict Miss Graham was assisted into the court room, trembling in every limb. Miss Conrad entered unassisted, but was extremely nervous. When the foreman announced the words "not guilty," she cried "Thank God!" and went into violent hysterics. She sank to the counsel table, then jumped up again, shrieking and tearing her hair and throwing her arms about wildly.

It was a surprise to the spectators, for Miss Conrad had kept much the better nerve of the defendants throughout the trial.

Miss Graham, who wept continually during the trial, and sobbed the more when she heard the verdict, recovered herself when she saw her companion so affected, and acted as comforter to her younger friend.

It was at first thought Miss Conrad had misunderstood the verdict and her companion tried to assure her that they were free.

"Oh, I know," she cried. "Tell mother we are free. Tell her we are coming home." The girl's hysteria continued ten minutes before her friends succeeded in quieting her. Then she recovered suddenly and, with Miss Graham on her arm, left the court room, to be greeted with cheers by a large crowd gathered outside. Many persons stepped forward to shake their hands. They stepped into a taxicab and whirled away to dinner.

ADMIRAL AND AVIATOR SAIL.

Naval Commander and Man Who Will Attempt Ocean Flight Coming.

Liverpool, Dec. 16.—Rear Admiral Hugo Austrians, commander-in-chief of the United States Atlantic fleet, sailed today for New York on the Campania. The same vessel also took as a passenger James Y. Martin, who proposes to make a trip across the Atlantic in a biplane next August, starting from St. Johns, New Foundland. Mr. Martin expects to reach Ireland in forty hours.

HINDERS HOLIDAY SHOPPERS.

Chicago, Dec. 16.—A rain and snow storm settled over the lake region and the Ohio valley today, partially tying up telegraph and train traffic and causing great discomfort to the Christmas shopping crowds in the cities. The snow was expected to continue tonight, and with slight lower temperature according to the United States forecast.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR NEW LIGHTS

Superintendent Dix Was Little Reserved in His Promises.

TESTING THEM OUT

"Prospects are good for turning on the ornamental lights on East and West Berry streets and on the east side of the court house tonight, but remember I don't promise anything."

This is what Superintendent Frank Dix, of the city lighting plant, said this afternoon in regard to as much of the ornamental system as has been made ready by the contractors.

Mr. Dix has had so many disappointments during the construction of the system that he is a little bit reserved and while he felt pretty sure the people would have a chance to "do it early" under the light from the new system he would not make any positive statement on the subject.

Notes of the City Hall. Orders were given at the city hall today to have all of the city property removed from the assembly room on the third floor so that the contractors will be ready to go to work there Monday morning. New officers will be arranged for the park board, the city sealer, the associated charities and the Bertillon system.

Work on Hoffman street that was started some time ago by the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company is only temporary, according to the board of works, but it will be left as it is for the winter months. In the spring the permanent work will be done.

REAPPOINTS POSTMASTER.

Washington, Dec. 15.—President Taft announced today that he would reappoint Postmaster Campbell at Chicago.

LAGRANGE MAN AFTER THE JOB

L. N. Litman Wants to Be Republican District Chairman.

SIZING UP CHANCES

[Special to The Sentinel.] Lagrange, Ind., Dec. 16.—Louis N. Litman, of this city, is a candidate for the republican chairmanship of the Twelfth district, the place held for the past four years by James M. Henry, of Fort Wayne.

Mr. Litman has been tentatively an aspirant for the position for some time, but within the past few days both he and his friends have been doing some active work in his interest. Mr. Litman was at Fort Wayne yesterday interviewing some of the party leaders.

So far as can be learned, Chairman Henry has not yet indicated whether he expects to be a candidate for reelection or not, but it is said that Mr. Litman has been given some assurances of support from the upper counties of the district. Senator S. K. Gainard is in charge of his campaign.

Mr. Litman has been active in republican county and district affairs for some years and is well known over the district.

CAN NOW USE CRUTCHES.

Edward Rieman, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rieman, of 1308 South Hanna street, who had two of his toes cut off and the ligaments of his foot severed by falling under the wheels of a city work car some time ago and who is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital, is now able to be around on crutches and will probably return to his home before Christmas.

LOVER HEARS PISTOL SHOT OVER 'PHONE; GIVES ALARM

Woman Attempts Suicide in Chicago Hotel While Telephoning Man Who Refused to Wed Her.

Chicago, Dec. 16.—While telephoning to Frank B. Cockrell, a Chicago lumber dealer, formerly of Jerseyville, Ill., to reproach him for his refusal to marry her, Mrs. Edna Robinson, of Portland, Ore., a guest at the LaSalle hotel shot herself early today and was taken to a hospital in a serious condition. Cockrell, who was at another hotel about a block away, heard the shot over the telephone and went at once to the LaSalle hotel, where Mrs. Robinson was found.

Mrs. Robinson told the police that she and Cockrell attended a theater last night and later had gone to a cafe for supper. "I suggested to Frank that he marry me and he refused. When he refused again when I telephoned him in the morning I decided that life was not worth living," she said.

The shot also was heard by House Detective Clark, who was passing Mrs. Robinson's room just as she telephoned to Cockrell and heard her say, "Listen, Frank, listen."

Cockrell's Version of It.

Cockrell, after describing the theater party which Mrs. Robinson and he attended, said she telephoned him early today to remind him of an engagement to eat breakfast with her. He at first admitted that he heard the shot while talking to Mrs. Robinson, but later gave this version:

"I was awakened by the telephone an hour later," he said, "and found Mrs. Robinson again at the phone. 'Frank, I'm in trouble,' she said, 'policemen are all around me.' A policeman then told me she had shot herself and asked me to come over."

Cockrell later told conflicting stories about his acquaintance with Mrs. Robinson and denied that he had been asked to marry her, or had been responsible for estrangement with her husband, who he said, was in Portland. He denied that he was a relative of former Senator Cockrell. "Mrs. Robinson said she lived with a sister at No. 926 1/2 Ankeness street, Portland, and was divorced from her husband two years ago."

"Made a Bad Job of It."

Mrs. Robinson had been a guest of the hotel since December 3. She was out last evening and did not return until an early hour this morning. The hotel detective and clerk went to the room when they heard a revolver shot and found Mrs. Robinson standing near the bed with blood flowing from a bullet wound near the heart. She attempted to pick up the revolver which was lying on the floor as the attaches of the hotel entered.

"I tried to kill myself, but I made a bad job of it," she said.

A number of Christmas packages which Mrs. Robinson apparently had just prepared for mailing, were found in the hotel room. Among the addresses were:

Miss B. J. Smith, 520 West 114th street, New York; Sister M. J. Smith, St. Regis Convent, New York City; Madame Addie Smith, Mother Superior, Grosjean Point, Farm, Convent of the Sacred Heart, Detroit, Mich.

INDIANA'S FULL CREW LAW GOOD

Supreme Court Upholds the Constitutionality of the Act.

DECIDES IT QUICKLY

Washington, Dec. 16.—The validity of the Indiana full train crew law was established by the United States supreme court in less than ten minutes yesterday. An Arkansas statute of similar character was held recently by the supreme court to be a legal enactment. "S. O. Pickens, of Indianapolis, representing the Pennsylvania railroad, appeared to attack the Indiana law. Attorney General Thomas Homan and Martin Hugg were on hand to defend it."

Mr. Pickens had spoken less than ten minutes when Chief Justice White interrupted him with a request that he show the court where the Indiana case was different from the Arkansas case. Mr. Pickens said there was a difference in that the train involved in the Indiana case was a mail train, while the Arkansas train was a freight train. He suggested that a train that carries the mails has a different status in interstate commerce from a train carrying freight.

"I think," said the chief justice, "that unless Mr. Pickens can point out some other points of difference it is pretty clear that the court's decision in the Arkansas case also establishes the validity of Indiana law, and there is no use of proceeding further with the argument."

This ended the hearing and the convincing speeches which Homan and Hugg would have made if they had had an opportunity, remained bottled up. They little dreamed when they left Indianapolis that they would travel 800 miles and spend nearly a week in waiting, only to hear the supreme court tell the opposing attorney that it was useless to argue the case.

The statute is an important one, especially to railroad men of Indiana. It provides that a crew for a freight train of less than fifty cars shall consist of an engineer, a fireman, a conductor and two brakemen.

If the train has fifty or more cars, there shall be three brakemen. The law also establishes the minimum crew to handle passenger trains.

Mr. Homan will remain over until Monday, when he will make a motion that the court advance the Vandavia rate case for an early decision. This is a case in which the Indiana Railroad commission undertook to make a cut of 30 per cent. in the local freight rates of the Vandavia and was tied up by an injunction.

SHOOTS SON, THEN COMMITS SUICIDE

Despondent Boston Man's Tragic Act at Los Angeles.

OF WEALTHY FAMILY

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 16.—Samuel P. Ayres, of Boston, Mass., shot and probably fatally wounded his son at a hotel early today and then committed suicide.

The Ayres, father and son, have been about 20 years apart. The father, a man long his wife some time ago and remarried yesterday that he had nothing to live for.

Joseph Ayres, the son, was shot in the back of the head. The bullet penetrated the brain, but surgeons said he had a slight chance for recovery.

The shooting took place at 6:30 o'clock this morning. Father and son occupied adjoining rooms. It is supposed the father entered his son's room, shot him and went back to his own apartment, where he committed suicide. Soon after coming to California Samuel Ayres purchased a ranch at Beaumont, near Riverside. Apparently the family was well to do. Pass books showed deposits in several banks. Samuel Ayres was about 50 years old, the son about 20. Joseph Ayres has been unconscious since the shooting.

NOT KNOWN IN BOSTON.

Boston, Dec. 16.—The only Samuel Ayres in the Boston directory is Samuel L., a prominent business man. Mr. Ayres said that he never heard of the man in Los Angeles and did not know of any one bearing the family name who was visiting in that city.

EVERY LINER A TREASURE SHIP

Millions in Presents and Money Being Sent to Europe.

MANY MONEY ORDERS

New York, Dec. 16.—Every transatlantic liner that sails through the Narrows to or from New York these days is a treasure ship. Four vessels alone within the past four days have carried abroad four million of dollars and more, New York's annual Christmas presents to the old world. This city will have sent in the neighborhood of ten millions of dollars abroad when the last gift laden liner leaves her pier within the next few days.

In addition to this Christmas present to the folks back home, euros of Europe, subjects throughout the United States of almost every kingdom on the map, will swell the fund by millions more.

Over the money counter of the New York postoffice there have passed within the past ten days more than six millions of dollars for shipment abroad and the season is still at its height. When the last inventory was taken Great Britain was leading with $1,337,000, with Italy pressing her for second place, with 39,104 money orders totalling $1,691,000. Will cash 114,412 money orders to get this sum. To Austria there had gone 25,014 money orders aggregating $493,060; to Sweden 40,357, aggregating $442,810; to Germany 37,473 gifts, totalling $430,316. Liberia's gift is the smallest, there being sixteen money orders with $866, while to Egypt next in order from the east, there went 94 orders, totalling $1,828.

CONNELLY GIVEN TERM IN PRISON

Will Be Held at Colony for Criminal Insane at Michigan City.

NEW MAN IS NAMED

Thomas J. Connelly, who fired a couple of shots at Patrolman Joe Brennan several weeks ago after he had escaped from the officer, was sent to prison for two to fourteen years on a charge of assault with intent to kill and will be consigned to the ward at Michigan City for the criminal insane.

He is a man advanced in years and at the time the officer approached him was in the yard of a residence in the west end and his actions aroused suspicion. He was later picked up on the Main street bridge and gave two policemen an awful fight before they landed him.

New Councilman Named.
Noah Amstutz, well known farmer of Springfield township, was today elected a member of the county council to succeed the late Ira Gribb. Mr. Amstutz is one of the most popular men in his township and the appointment gave general satisfaction.

The council was called today to make some appropriations to finish out the county expenses during the year. Eleven thousand dollars was appropriated for the Graham and McCulloch ditches but this will be collected and returned to the county treasury. The other appropriations were small.

Notes of the Courts.
In the superior court today Emma Bishop was granted a divorce from Del D. Bishop. She charged abandonment.

L. P. Sharp has been appointed receiver for the Hartman Drug company, which conducted a retail store at Lafayette and Lewis streets. It is charged in the application for a receivership that the business has been mismanaged.

Earl Schano has entered suit against George A. Miller in which he demands $3,000 for personal injuries. He was run down on West Main street and says one of his shoulders was dislocated and one of his arms broken. Judge R. B. Drebbels filed the suit.

John D. Johnston, who has assumed the management of a second-hand store at 223 East Main street, secured an injunction to prevent William C. Haggerty, former manager, from interfering with the business. Colerick & Hogan filed the suit.

THE DEATHS.

PERRIGUE.

Mrs. Pauline Perrigue, widow of Peter Perrigue, died this morning at her home, 820 Lombard-avenue, following an extended illness.

GIBSON.

Allen Gibson, aged 8 years, of Ossian, died this morning at the Lutheran hospital, where he had been a patient since Thursday. The body was taken to Ossian for funeral services and interment.

MOORE.

Ethel May Moore, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Moore, of Montone, died Friday night at 11 o'clock at the Lutheran hospital from peritonitis.

The body was shipped to Montone for funeral services and interment.

RECOVERED STOLEN GOODS.

Dr. Tucker's Property Located in Springfield by Chief Abbott.

An overcoat, a fountain pen and a scarf taken Oct. 13 last, from the office of Dr. Leslie Tucker, South Calhoun street, was recovered by Chief of Police Abbott at Springfield, O. Frank Francis, the man who stole the goods and who also took some gold, is serving a sentence at Springfield and may be brought back here to answer a charge of burglary.

WILL FIX NAME AND DATE.

Odd Fellows of New Lodge to Hold Meeting Tomorrow.

Odd Fellows who are to be identified with the new lodge of sojourners in Fort Wayne will hold a meeting at Harmony hall at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to determine upon the name of the new lodge and the precise date of its institution early in January. Jesse McBeth, district deputy grand master of Odd Fellows for Allen county, says prospects for the new organization are very bright.

STOLE CANDY AND PENNIES.

A thief entered the Hoham drug store on South Calhoun street last night, by prying the back window open with a wedge and stole seven one-pound boxes of Christmas candy and about $1 in pennies. There was more money to have been obtained if the thief had tried the cash register but this was left. The police are investigating the case.

business life. City planning which looks to the development of the beautiful, the wholesome, the sanitary, is the principle which underlies the more modern development of old world cities of which today we are hearing so much. And surely what is found in the old world to content him, belongs to a greater degree with life is none too good for the people of our American cities.

His Visit to Fort Wayne.

"I am looking forward to my visit to Fort Wayne with a degree of pleasure I could not exaggerate if I would. The effort there is attracting attention. Realization of that is being planned will give the city and people of Fort Wayne a more widespread fame than the heroic history of their early days, more widespread and enduring than the note she enjoys from her great industrial development. A city which draws the general gaze because she has a deep and progressive concern for the happiness, contentment and well-being of her people achieves a renown that comes itself into material prosperity no less than the development of productive enterprise."

The annual convention of the American Civic association, which has just ended, in many respects has been one of the best the organization has yet held. While great emphasis has been given to civic concerns of national concern and importance, the prime motive of the association has not been lost sight of. City planning and human betterment have had a very large share in the deliberations of the convention. Almost all topics of municipal interest from fly-swarming to civic centers have had consideration and some of the foremost exponents of municipal progress and some of the most distinguished experts in civic specialization have given their opinions to the convention.

Along Newer Grooves.
That municipal development along newer grooves that lead to improved government and better living, greater happiness and higher ideals is to be the great social and civic impulse of the immediate future in the community life of America seems to be forecasted beyond all haze of doubt. Seven hundred cities are now associated in this mighty civic federation whose militant purpose is to make life more and more worth living. Each profits by the experience and example of the others. Each gains something tangible and definite from the associated effort. All are pressing with common impulse and aspiration to the same goal, and while each has its own peculiar problems to solve and perplexities to unravel, none can fail to realize great results from such a stupendous coalition of brains, experience and ambition.

It is not easy to get specific opinions from men who have been leaders in this sort of work as to what recourse Fort Wayne should have in the matter of means to achieve the big things she has in mind for civic improvement. They are familiar neither with conditions nor the legal aspects of the situation. But to such as it has been possible to make something like a comprehensive and intelligible presentation of Fort Wayne's case there occurs one opinion in common and that is that if the city can avail itself of the means to launch its projects without delay there will be vast gain both in financial economy and dispatch of the work.

Seems Like Absurdity.

To a majority of such experienced men the fact that a city as large and as wealthy as Fort Wayne has much less than a half million dollars of bonded indebtedness and capacity to increase it only to a maximum of something like three-quarters of a million makes the appeal an absurdity. They call attention to the fact that most cities of Fort Wayne's class have municipal debts of many times Fort Wayne's volume of bonded liability and yet are not embarrassed to the extent either of embarrassment of credit or of leading down tax-payers. Another view taken is that the projects afoot in Fort Wayne would mean the creation of a very lively species of prosperity in the city. Interest in the improvement schemes in Fort Wayne has been easily enlisted and the outcome of the movements now afoot there may be closely watched. Nothing that may be embraced in the new civic propaganda in America is foreign to the ideas of men and women militantly identified with the great movement that is now so deeply stirring in the cities of the United States.

TO PRISON FOR THREE YEARS.

Man Who Sent Crooked Games Through Mail Gets Sentence.

Chicago, Dec. 16.—Three years in the federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kas., was the sentence given today by Judge Landis in the United States district court to Eugene Stockton, who was convicted by a jury of having used the federal mails in disposing of used game devices, marked cards and crooked unfair dice, manufactured, gambled devices which he manufactured. Reviewing the testimony Judge Landis said: "This case explains to me certain things which I have seen done at county fairs."

After a pause he added: "In which other gentlemen participated."

Attorney Hugh Keegan will leave tonight for Oklahoma City in the interest of the Sprankle Dredge company.

BURDEN OF PROOF ON CORPORATION

Proposed in Trust Law Amendment by Mr. Lenroot.

COSTING TOO MUCH

Washington, Dec. 16.—An amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law placing the burden of proof of "reasonableness" of restraint of trade upon defendant corporations would be provided under a bill introduced today by Representative Lenroot, of Wisconsin, who represents the La Follette progressive republican ideas in the house. It was referred to the judiciary committee.

Whenever a case is shown conclusively as a violation of law the bill provides that the restraint of trade shall be held to have been "unreasonable."

Says It Has Done "Wild."
The house steel trust investigating committee is costing Congress $2,700 a month while extra stenographic work for this session is costing $2,000 a month, according to statements made in a speech in the house today by Chairman Fitzgerald, of the house committee on appropriations. He added that "the sugar trust" investigation committee was costing $200 a month and the committee investigating postoffice expenditures $325 a month.

"Every new expenditure we authorize is adding to the prospective deficit in the treasury," said Mr. Fitzgerald in attacking an increase of the public building program. "If this keeps on, the house will not be devoting its efforts to reducing the burdens of taxation and must find new methods of raising revenue."

Chairman Fitzgerald declared Congress had gone "wild" in authorizing new public buildings and that a limit must be put on such activity.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Senate not in session; meets 2 p. m. Monday.

State Representative Hull, of Illinois testified before Lorimer election inquiry.

Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston, spent his third day before interstate commerce committee.

House: Met at noon.

Debated $2,270,000 urgent deficiency bill with passage planned for late afternoon.

Steel and other inquiry commissions in recess until Monday.

Anti-trust law amendment putting burden of proof of reasonableness of trade restraint on defendant, introduced by Lenroot.

Chairman Fitzgerald, of appropriation committee, charged that government estimates had been cut below actual needs; that a treasury deficit is in prospect and that investigating committees are costing heavily.

HIT BY AN INTERURBAN.

Harry Orlinger Injured When Car Struck an Oil Wagon.

An Indianapolis interurban car in charge of Motorman VanBuskirk and Conductor Hieber crashed into a Standard Oil company's wagon near the corner of Broadway and Cottage avenues, about 4:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, throwing Harry Orlinger, of 1406 High street, the driver, from the seat and severely injuring him. He was picked up in a semi-conscious condition and taken to the residence of Dr. Underwood, and removed from there to his home. He was badly injured about the back and hips and may also be suffering from internal injuries.

Orlinger was coming into the city with the wagon from Sheldon, with three horses pulling the heavy oil wagon. The car struck the wagon and the force of the collision whirled the wagon entirely around and faced it in the opposite direction and tore the horses out of the harness. All three animals were thrown to the ground and bystanders caught two of them, but one managed to get away and was not caught for several hours. Orlinger was hurled from the seat and dragged several feet by the car, but managed to escape going under the wheels. All the glass in the vestibule was shattered and many passengers were thrown from their seats.

KEENAN A DIRECTOR.

Fort Wayne Hotel Man on Board of State Association.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 16.—The Indiana Hotel Keepers' association, at its sixteenth annual convention yesterday at the Hotel English, took a firm stand on the liquor question and endorsed the Conservative Voters' League of Indiana, which supports the Prohibition liquor law as enacted by the recent legislature. As a result of the action members of the organization are pledged to refuse to vote the ticket of any party that indorses county local option in the next campaign.

The following officers were elected: President—J. Edward Krause, Indianapolis.

Vice President—Dell Locke, Bluffton.

Secretary—Lafe B. Weathers, Indianapolis.

Treasurer—Robert G. Watson, Indianapolis, re-elected.

Was Able to Prove an Alibi in Liquor Case Against Him.

BAKER IS ACQUITTED

John Pattee, barkeeper in Tom Baker's saloon, proved by four witnesses in the city court today that he was at his home on West Superior street at the hour that John Moore said he bought whisky of him in rooms above the bar, and he was acquitted by W. N. Ballou, special judge.

He had been identified by Moore as the man of whom he made the purchase and Baker, who was held jointly for the offense, was also acquitted. Moore had been employed by the chief of police to buy the whisky and he testified that he entered the side door of the place and went upstairs, where he made the purchase and was afterward arrested for drunkenness and sent to headquarters.

Baker has protested all the time that his place has not been open on Sundays but so many complaints have been made at headquarters that it was determined to try to trap him and Moore was employed to do it.

The Other Cases.
John Driscoll, Dick Brennan and Charles Murray, charged with public intoxication, were let go.

Henry Harbeson, charged with vagrancy, was fined $5 and costs. He was begging on the streets.

A case of assault and battery against Abe Fidler was continued. He is accused of having raised a row at the home of Charles Murray on Bass street and the possession of two black eyes and a number of abrasions on his face indicated that he got second money in the scarp.

STILL ANOTHER IS ORGANIZED

Wayne Heights Civic Improvement Association in Line.

SELECTS OFFICERS

There was a largely attended meeting held Friday evening at Kover's carpenter hall, corner of Runyon avenue and Howell streets, and an association to be known as the Wayne Heights Civic Improvement association was organized by the election of George Culver as president, B. O. Young as secretary and E. M. Kover as chairman of the publication committee.

The purpose is to push public improvements in the northwestern part of the city. What is especially to be desired at present are sewers and better streets.

There will be a public meeting held at the same place next Wednesday evening when the question of sewers will be discussed. An attendance is desired of all the citizens of that section of the city. The new organization will work hand in hand with similar bodies in other sections of the city.

VIEWS SHOWN AT DYNAMITE PROBE

Exhibits Show How Many Structures Were Wrecked.

TRACED MEN ON JOBS

Indianapolis, Dec. 16.—Bundles of photographs showing how bridges, viaducts, derricks and buildings had been wrecked by dynamite and nitroglycerine were taken before the federal grand jury today. They were part of the evidence in the government's investigation of the dynamite conspiracy and were gathered by J. A. G. Bader, a detective employed by the National Erectors' association, who investigated the entire series of more than 100 explosions, beginning with one at Millers Falls, Mass., in 1905, and continuing down until Oct. 16, 1911, when dynamite was found beneath a bridge near Santa Barbara, Cal., just before a special train bearing President Taft passed.

Bader traced the movements of the McNamara's and the operations of Orrie McManis, who went out from the headquarters of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers to do the "jobs." Special attention was given by Bader to the plan of John J. McNamara, secretary-treasurer of the iron workers, to have explosions occur simultaneously in far scattered places. This evidence was presented by Bader as showing that persons other than those already known were implicated in the dynamiting.

BEN HUR OFFICERS ELECTED.
Ben Hur court No. 15 held its annual meeting Friday evening and elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: Past chief, E. B. Rheinhardt; chief, Clark Harrod; judge, Miss Kress; teacher, Helena Puckett; scribe, M. J. Clear; K. of T., Charles Ashley; captain, William Fisher; guide, Joseph McKintie; keeper of the inner gate, William McCumsey; keeper of the outer gate, L. T. M. Jefferson.

The court will hold its regular social program Friday evening, January 5, and the entertainment will be furnished by an old-time minstrel show.

SMOKING LAMP

CAUSES DEATHS

Elkhart Sisters Asphyxiated by Coal Oil Carbon—Found a Week Later.

Elkhart, Ind., Dec. 16.—Asphyxiation by carbon gas from a kerosene lamp is Coroner Mast's verdict in the tragic deaths of Mrs. Martha Bigelow and her sister, Miss Mary McIntyre, who were found dead in the bedroom of their home, 316 North Second street, Thursday forenoon.

Scot found in the lungs and the throats of the victims being all doubt as to the kerosene lamp causing the cause of their deaths, presumably last Friday evening.

Undertaker Charles Walley, jr., was compelled to defer the preparation of the bodies for burial until yesterday morning because of their frozen condition, which accounts for the excellent preservation of the corpses that had undoubtedly lain in the homes for nearly a week until discovered by Mrs. C. E. Spaid, a neighbor.

The double funeral of Mrs. Martha Bigelow and Miss Mary McIntyre was held from the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock this afternoon, the Rev. Charles Mynderse Herrick, pastor, officiating. Interment was made at Grace Lawn cemetery.

INJURED AUTOIST IMPROVES.

Wabash, Ind., Dec. 16.—John Flora, of North Manchester, who had a serious accident Thursday afternoon, when he lost control of his automobile on Wabash street, is somewhat better and it is thought that there will be no serious consequences. Dr. Hale, who attended to the injuries of Mr. Flora, had to take eight stitches to sew up the gash cut above the right eye. Mr. Flora's lower lip was also badly cut and his entire body badly bruised.

MONTPELIER MEN HURT.

Montpelier, Ind., Dec. 16.—While lifting a heavy casting from the large crusher at the Hales Stone company's plant in this city shortly before noon yesterday John Hamilton, aged about 40, was seriously injured, and H. R. McCormick, superintendent of the plant, painfully hurt when a large steam weighing about six tons, slipped and fell to the floor from a large chain hoist which was used in elevating and lowering the casting.

Sage Tea Will Darken the Hair

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented. Don't neglect your hair. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and notice the difference after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Meyer Bros. Co., four drug stores.

LIVE AND LET LIVE

Views of a reliable merchant who has sold toys in Fort Wayne to gladden the hearts of the little ones, for 27 Christmases.

Somebody said, "Teach Your Dollars to have More Cents." This is an utter impossibility for there are only one hundred cents in the U. S. dollar. However, at my store you can teach your cents to make more dollars for you in the savings on purchases of toys and Christmas presents.

I do not dabble in dry goods, clothing, millinery, shoes, furniture, groceries, meats or serve luncheons. I leave that for those who are legitimately engaged in those lines of business. I do not profess to conduct a department store, but I do claim that an expert, one of 27 consecutive years of honest dealing in our city, in children's toys, has given me an advantage in knowledge in buying and selling that in turn is most advantageous to my customers.

I have the largest and best stock of toys in Fort Wayne at the most reasonable prices. No stairs to climb; everything out in plain view and prices marked plainly.

The public is courteously invited to call and inspect my stock. Open every evening from now until Christmas. Buy early while the stock is complete. A small payment will hold any article in the store. It is certainly to your advantage to buy your toys from a FRACTURAL TOY MERCHANT.

LINEMAN KILLED

BY LIVE WIRE

Hartford City Man Electrocuted While at Work—23,000 Volts Through His Body.

Hartford City, Ind., Dec. 16.—Robert Weaver, 31 years old, was instantly killed while working on the roof of the Hartford City Lighting company's substation in East Water street, about 12:45 yesterday afternoon when he came in contact with the high tension line running into the local plant from Marion and received 23,000 volts.

Working with Weaver on the roof at the time of the tragedy were Claude Ducey, Joseph Merritt and John O'Connell.

With his head bent forward Weaver walked toward the north end of the building without noticing the proximity of the high tension line. His face came close enough to the wire to cause the current to jump, striking him in the forehead. His features were badly discolored down to the nose but there was only a slight abrasion of the flesh in one spot to show where the wire had come in contact. The skin at this point was seared almost to the bone.

The deceased is survived by a wife and little baby, who make their home in the Carrell flats, on West Main street. It was some time after the accident that Mrs. Weaver was notified of the tragedy that had left her a widow. Rev. J. A. Bray carried the information to her, the minister having been sent to deliver the sad message by an employee of the light company.

FOUND DEAD IN MOW.

Jay County Pioneer Victim of Heart Trouble.

Portland, Ind., Dec. 16.—George Jetter, one of the oldest residents of Jay county, was found dead in the hay mow in the barn at his home, southeast of Salamonville, Thursday evening about 5:30 o'clock. Death was supposed to have been caused from heart disease, from which he had been a sufferer for some time, although he had been in his usual health during the past few days.

Thursday evening Mrs. Jetter called her husband to supper and on receiving no response called to her son Charles, who found his father dead in the hay mow.

The deceased is survived by a second wife, and the following children: Tenn. wife of William Freeman, of near Ft. Recovery, Ohio; Sarah, wife of Frank Miller, two miles east of Portland; George F. Jetter; Pearl, wife of John Bibler, of near Ft. Recovery, Ohio; and Charles D. Jetter, who resides near his father's farm. Mr. Jetter was the last of the family, his parents, one brother and sister being buried in this county and two being buried in Germany.

FILLING XMAS BASKETS.

Anburn, Ind., Dec. 16.—The Elks are planning to give the children of the city a genuine Christmas treat and every one of the latter who will visit the club rooms of the Elks on that day will receive a Christmas basket filled with good things. If there is one item which can add to the joy of the children which the Elks have omitted from their list they would like to know what it is. There will be music in abundance and the little folks will be entertained at one of the theaters in the afternoon. The greater number of children present the greater will be the success of the occasion.

FORWARD SCOUT MOVEMENT.

Huntington, Ind., Dec. 16.—The committee in charge of the boy work connected with the 12th and Religion Forward Movement here, has taken up the Boy Scout movement and next Sunday will appoint a committee of twelve or fourteen members to take steps which will result in the formation of a Boy Scout organization in Huntington.

CHOOSE HATCHERY LAKES.

Columbia City, Ind., Dec. 16.—Fifty members of the Northern Indiana Fish and Game Protective association met Thursday night at the Bailey & Company law office, to decide on three lakes in which three million small mouth black bass fry shall be placed, and after a careful discussion of the matter, a selection of lakes was made.

Round Lake, of the Tri-Lake resort; Big Lake, in the southern edge of Noble county, just above the Whitley county line; and Cedar Lake, in Whitley township, were the three lakes chosen.

BEN HUR MEETING.

Kendallville, Ind., Dec. 16.—The second Traction league meeting of the "Tribe of Ben Hur" including the Kendallville, Avilla, Garrett and Auburn courts, was entertained by Kendallville court No. 20 Thursday evening in the quarters of the Odd Fellows. One hundred and fifty members were present and without doubt the meeting was the best ever held by the organization.

AGED CITIZEN DIES.

Warsaw, Ind., Dec. 16.—William Lowery, 76 years old, who has made his home at the Reed House for about two years, died Thursday night at 11 o'clock. Mr. Lowery was a highly respected citizen of Warsaw for many years, but his family are all dead excepting one son, C. B. Lowery, a traveling man, and the aged man came to the Reed House because of the excellent care he received there in his declining years. He contracted neuritis from exposure in army life during the civil war, which became chronic. This was aggravated by a severe cold and he died of pneumonia of the heart.

SPOKANE'S BIG PARK PLAN.

Spokane, Wash., has entered upon one of the most gigantic park schemes ever attempted by any American city, and in view of Fort Wayne's awakened interest in this line of civic endeavor, the effort is of particular local interest. Summarized, Spokane proposes to have it said of the city in the future that it is impossible to live more than ten minutes' walk from a park. And it is undertaking this great work not because of any vanity on the part of the citizens, but because after the maturest deliberation it believes that such a park system will pay.

In the spring of 1910 the people of Spokane voted upon a park proposition. A million dollars was asked for park sites and playgrounds, and a majority of the people voted in favor of such proposition. But the election was contested, and has since been in the supreme court.

A few days ago, however, the supreme court decided that the election was valid and that the law under which the election was held was constitutional, so the work of park improvement will begin at once—and everybody in Spokane is happy, or ought to be.

The people of Spokane are an enlightened lot, evidently. Their city is still new, and is growing rapidly, and they know that sooner or later all cities will have to provide parks and playgrounds; that to fail to do so, after population becomes congested, will be considered a crime. So the city proposes to obtain park sites all over the city while the land is comparatively cheap, and to improve them gradually as there is means with which to do so.

There is perhaps greater significance than has been realized in the announcement that Germany is likely to ask for a readjustment of its commercial relations with the United States. In the light of diplomatic exchanges going on between the state department and the German foreign office, the German expression of dissatisfaction with the present American tariff regulations concerns less the potato dispute, which diplomatically is settled, than another issue which bids fair to threaten the entire German-American trade agreement now in force. Germany, within the last few days, has made it known to the United States government in unmistakable language that it considers the continued refusal to allow free entry of paper and pulp as a direct violation of the treaty and breach of faith. "Minimum for minimum," as promised by the agreement, must be granted, according to the German viewpoint, or the United States is not "standing by its bargain."

Mayor Gaynor, of New York, has expressed himself again about the conduct of the public schools. He believes that the schools try to teach too much, with the result that they do not teach well enough. He admits that he does not speak as an expert, and therefore puts himself in the hands of the experts. But who are they? asks the Hartford Times. Some of them men who deserve all respect, others dryasdusts who are crammed with statistics they cannot digest and with theories that have never been really justified in practice. Taking it all together, we imagine a debate on education to be as free as a Kilkeny fight, but not so conclusive.

A short weight crusade started in Pittsburg resulted in the finding of 900 dealers who were working that racket on their customers. Plenty of them had their scales set for twelve ounces to the pound. This has resulted in a large number of convictions, with sentences involving heavy ones and in some cases imprisonment. In the light of some other varieties of crookedness that have developed in Pittsburg in the past few years, one would have half suspected that the people would not pay serious attention to petty larceny like that.

With William Barnes, jr., republican chairman for New York state, declaring that President Taft talks too much, that Roosevelt seeks to be a dictator and that Senator LaFollette is quite impossible, there occurs to us but one other distinguished republican who might be satisfactory to him as a presidential nominee. That's Barnes.

There are signs of breakers ahead in the Cuban political situation, according to dispatches received at the state department. The movement to disbar from eligibility to public office all those who served on the Spanish side during the struggle for Cuban independence has precipitated an issue fraught with acute political tension on both sides. After the Spanish-American war many of the Cubans who had first fought with Spain were retained in their positions because they understood their work. The practice thus instituted was kept alive under the Magoon system and has been continued down to the present time. Now a bill has been introduced in the Cuban legislature, backed by the veterans who fought on the side of Cuba, to suspend the civil service act and replace the men who sided with Spain by Cuban independence veterans. President Gomez finds himself between two fires in dealing with the problem. Whichever side he takes there is likely to be trouble on the other side. With this political unrest coming on only a few months before the liberal convention meets in May, the prospects of stormy political scenes seem likely.

With the election five days past, there would really seem to be no reason for further delay in coming forward with the returns from those five Arizona counties which have not yet been heard from. The general result is in no serious doubt. But were the result in the state "close," the possibilities of holding out half a dozen counties for a week or more is enough to suggest the good old days to a lot of practical politicians who contend that times aren't what they used to be.

The arrest of a former chaplain and five privates of the United States army at Fort Riley on a dynamiting charge would seem to indicate that the germ that permeated the system of the McNamoras is both infectious and contagious. Somebody ought to discover a sure-shot remedy for the "bug," and jump into flame along with other benefactors of the human race.

Congress received the official report of the examining board conveying the news that the Maine had been wrecked by an exterior explosion, and it did not occasion the slightest indication of a commotion. 'Tis true the fact was already generally known, but it is interesting to contrast the pacific calm of the present with the patriotic urbulence that attended the original receipt of the report now near thirteen years ago.

The fact that England will not purchase beef supplies for her army from American packers now under indictment is altogether the severest blow our omnipresent friend the meat trust has yet received. Most of the packers have not allowed a little thing like an indictment to disturb them so long as the public continued to buy meat at the top-notch scale in price.

TIME MEASURE OF TRANS-CONTINENTAL FLIGHT.

(Atlanta Georgian.)

Colbreith P. Rodgers, the aviator, last Sunday finished his cross-continent flight from Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., to Long Beach, Cal. When he arrived at Long Beach he announced with much pride the fact that he had made the trip in three days, ten hours and fourteen minutes, actual flying time.

His was indeed a pride-provoking achievement, and we would not detract one iota from it. The pioneer in any line of accomplishment deserves high honor.

But while his actual time in the air was less than four days, the actual time in making the entire trip was—albeit a sublimity.

And the difference between three days, ten hours and fourteen minutes and all the autumn is only another way of measuring the weakness of the aeroplane as a consistent means of transportation and of depicting the chief frailty of aviators.

Most of the span of time measured by this difference was spent by Rodgers in repairing breakdowns in his machine and in recuperating in the hospitals from injuries to himself received as the result of these breakdowns.

The chief fault of the aeroplane is the flimsy character of its construction. The chief fault of aviators is their fondness for going after records and trying daredevil feats, regardless of the risk to life and limb.

Another trans-continent flight before improvements in construction have enabled the aeroplane to shorten very much the gap between actual flying time and the total time consumed would be folly.

It is a great thing to have made the coast-to-coast flight in less than three days' flying time. But it would be a greater thing to perfect the aeroplane to such a degree that any ordinarily skillful aviator could make the trip in twenty days' total time without any stopovers at repair shops and hospitals.

LOS ANGELES WOMEN.

(New York Globe.)

It is still the fashion, we believe, for a public man to say: "In the United States women can have the suffrage as soon as they want it. But they haven't yet convinced me that they want it."

The Los Angeles election ought to lessen the popularity of this little speech. To be sure, there was intense excitement in the city. The vote cast by women and the vote cast by men were doubtless abnormal. With every allowance made, however, for the exceptional circumstances, the facts remain that 93 per cent. of the women registered took the trouble to vote, and that about 70,000, in a city of about 320,000 inhabitants, took the trouble to register.

Naturally no one pretends that the same eagerness to vote would necessarily be found in Charleston or Baltimore, but Los Angeles should give a little pause to those who like to talk about woman's indifference to the franchise.

WILLIAM C. SCHWIER

Democratic Candidate for the Nomination for County Commissioner, Third District.

(Labor Times-Herald.)

The announcement of William C. Schvier as a candidate for the democratic nomination for county commissioner from the Third district was made several weeks ago and is repeated in this issue of Times-Herald. It gives Times-Herald genuine pleasure to note the approval with which Mr. Schvier's candidacy is being received, and this statement can be made, certainly without disparagement to other candidates and without prejudice against any one. Mr. Schvier is still a young man, but he has had the business experience which only a few men have in an entire lifetime. He is so thoroughly qualified and so unqualifiedly deserving and so progressive and energetic that to say the least, the voters of the county can make no mistake in placing the affairs of the Third district in his hands for administration in the capacity of commissioner.

William C. Schvier is a Fort Wayne man and was born in this city in 1868. His early schooldays were passed in the German Lutheran school of St. Paul's church on Barr street and from there he passed into the public schools and still later graduated from Prof. White's leather business college. At the early age of fifteen he embarked in the grocery business with his father and he has been in the grocery business ever since, covering a period of more than twenty-eight years. His record has been that of the successful business man—just such a man as would be applying business principles all the time, make a successful official. Neither is Mr. Schvier a stranger to the official game and his friends say he was a politician when he was born. In 1905 he was elected councilman-at-large and his colleagues in the city council honored him by electing him their president and this honor was conferred upon him four consecutive times, he serving in that capacity throughout his entire term. He has always been active in political affairs in the First ward and has always been daring and fearless advocate of clean politics. As a councilman he always stood for the best interests of the city at large and those of his constituents and in advocating that which he believed to be right he gave no favor and felt no fear. During the last presidential campaign he was president of the First Ward Bryan and Marshall club and an analysis of the vote of his ward will indicate how thoroughly and effectively his ward was organized. He also represented his ward as a delegate to the last two state conventions and he is proud of the fact that he was one of the original Tom Marshall men at the convention which nominated him for governor.

It is a matter of common knowledge that Mr. Schvier's activity in that connection did as much as that of any other man in shaping the course of the tide in Marshall's favor, a fact that no one has yet cared to dispute.

Mr. Schvier has said to his friends that in the event of his election he would at once retire from the active management of his extensive grocery business and devote his time and energies exclusively to the discharge of his office. "The office of county commissioner in a county of the importance of Allen," said Mr. Schvier "is too important to be mixed up with anything else. I expect to get his exclusive services during working hours and would not expect him to divide his time between my store and one of his own or that of another grocer. I think the same business principle should apply to any office of importance. If I did not expect to give the office my exclusive attention if I got it, I would not be a candidate for it."

Mr. Schvier says his object would be only to serve the people and serve them well and to that end should devote all his time and energy. No man in Fort Wayne occupies a place higher in the esteem of the general public than does Mr. Schvier and those who know him best, know that when he says that he is anxious to serve all the people he is anxious to serve exactly what he says and if elected will serve as a commissioner for the county in the fullest sense of the term.

ing picture manufacturing company used a $25,000 fire in the heart of the business section at noon today as the setting for an exciting melodrama, introducing three soul stirring, rescues amid flame and smoke.

A can of gasoline exploded in the rear of the tailor shop of H. Schmed, at No. 8 Rose street, adjoining the gasoline tanks of Riker's garage. Schmed's face and hands were scorched as he and the flames reached the street door at the same time. The entire contents of the shop, including garments of wealthy customers, and $1,200 in bills in the safe, which was open, were destroyed in less than five minutes. The fire wrecked a butcher shop and a laundry next door. In the Leopold Magnus building, on the corner of Main street, adjoining the tailor shop and containing apartments and stores $18,000 damage was done to the building, stock and furniture.

Almost as soon as the firemen arrived the motion picture troupe was on the scene with three cameras. The hero staggered from the hallway into the street in a cloud of black smoke carrying in his arms a terrified little girl. He dashed back after fighting and shaking off several firemen and carried out

Men Who Helped to Make America

JOHN GLOVER, sailing master, fisherman and signer in the Revolution, was born at Salem, Massachusetts, November 5, 1732. He came of a family of fishermen, and was one of those staunch old New Englanders whom the world justly admires.

His energy and sterling worth made him an important figure in his native town. So dominant was he in the life of Salem that when the war broke out he had no difficulty in recruiting a regiment among his fellow fishermen.

They made him their colonel, and John Glover marched at their head to the army headquarters at Cambridge, where he was the newly formed army of the patriots.

His training as a fisherman and sailing master stood him in good stead during the war and on two occasions was invaluable to the American forces. During the memorable retreat after the desperate battle of Long Island, it was Glover and his men who guarded the boats in which the army crossed to the mainland and who protected the rear of the retreating patriots.

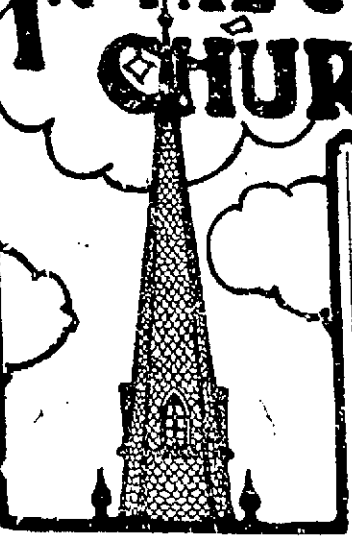

Later, in Washington's memorable crossing of the Delaware, it was Glover's men who achieved the passage. They, too, led the advance at the battle of Trenton, and were conspicuous for their bravery at Stillwater. In the hard winter at Valley Forge, Glover and his hardy fishermen were notable for their endurance.

His later service was equally valuable. Glover was promoted to the rank of brigadier general February 21, 1777.

He died at Marblehead nearly twenty a useful factor in drilling and organizing years later, on January 30, 1775.

FOR RELIEF OF WORTHY POOR

Christian Endeavor Societies Take Collection Sunday Evening.

NEWS OF LOCAL UNION

On Sunday evening the Endeavor societies of the city will take up an offering for the work of relieving the worthy poor of the city during the coming winter months. A similar offering was taken last year just before Christmas, and quite a large sum was raised, which was judiciously used to assist deserving families. The money is placed in charge of the missionary committee, and help is given only to those whose condition has been investigated by charitable organizations of the city, and in most cases the money is used for purchasing coal. It is hoped that the offering Sunday evening in all the societies will be large and redemptive of the Christmas spirit.

The prayer meeting committee is busy in preparation for the meeting of the Plymouth Congregational church on New Year's eve at 8 o'clock. Inasmuch as New Year's eve comes on Sunday this year, it is hoped that the room will be packed with enthusiastic Endeavorers. There will be good singing, special music and a number of short, spicy talks by workers in various societies. Miss Mae Covington is in charge of arrangements, and the full program will be announced in this column next week.

The local union will hold its annual banquet and election of officers at the First Baptist church on the evening of January 26. With one or two exceptions the committee in charge of the banquet last year has been reappointed, and Mr. Clifford Hutchinson has been named as chairman. Every Endeavorer in the city should plan to attend.

Mr. Ralph Willson, a former president of the local union, will be in the city during the Christmas holidays and an effort will be made to have him lead the singing at the union meeting on New Year's eve, in case he finds it possible to remain in the city that long.

Mr. Irving Bitner, who until August of this year was in charge of the work in the Fort Wayne district, has written to friends in this city that he is now working for the government at Yreka, Cal., and he sends his regards to all local Endeavorers.

The attendance contest between the societies of the First Baptist church and the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ is proving to be very interesting. At last reports the standings were equal.

South Side Baptist Church.

At the South Side Baptist church the pastor, Rev. Chas. E. Ehle, will preach at 10:45 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Morning sermon subject, "How May We Honor God?" Evening, "The Greatest Possibility of Life; or, The Efficient Union of Divine and Human Power." This will be the concluding sermon in a series of three on the general theme of "Ability." The Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. will meet at 9:30 a. m. and 6:30 p. m., respectively.

Mid-week prayer service Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. On Thursday evening of next week the Sunday school will give its Christmas entertainment. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend all these services.

Christian Science.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, 916 Harrison street, a branch of the Mother church in Boston, holds Sunday services at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m.; Sunday school at 11:40. Subject for tomorrow, "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Automatic Force?"

Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock in the church. The reading rooms at 816 and 817 Shoaff building are open daily except Sunday and legal holidays, from 1 till 9 p. m. and on Saturday evening from 7 till 9. All are welcome, both to the church services and to the reading room.

Railroad Y. M. C. A.

The Railroad Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon meeting will be held this week in the reading room of the association building, at 3 p. m. Mr. J. L. Anguish, general secretary of the Fifty-fifth Street Railroad Y. M. C. A. of Chicago, will be the speaker. Mr. Anguish has been in Chicago about one year and a half, and before going there was connected with the following railroad fields: Williamson, W. Va., Niagara Falls, Ont., Ravens, N. Y., and Jamaica, L. I. He and our local secretary are graduates of the same college, the International Y. M. C. A. Training school of Springfield, Ill.

RESCUE WORKER TO NEW FIELD

Farewell Tendered Former Superintendent Cooper at the Mission.

GREAT WORK HERE

The chapel at the Fort Wayne Rescue Home and Mission was crowded Friday evening at the farewell service held for George I. Cooper, the retired superintendent of the mission, and his wife, who left today on their way to take up their new work at Philadelphia, where Mr. Cooper takes charge, as superintendent, of the Mission of Liberties, a mission under the care of one of the largest Presbyterian churches of that city.

The service was in charge of J. A. Nipper, the new superintendent of the mission, and after a song program S. W. Teeple, one of the staunch friends of the mission, presented Mr. and Mrs. Cooper with jewelry tokens of the love and esteem in which they are held by the mission attendants and workers.

Supt. Nipper's farewell words to the former superintendent were in praise of his great work and Mr. Cooper's response was appropriate and eloquent, expressive of his regret at the parting and asking the prayers of his friends here for the success of the new work in which they would engage. Mrs. Cooper's response was along the same lines. Rev. W. T. Loring and others also spoke briefly.

Mr. Cooper left this morning for Buchanan, Mich., where he holds evangelistic services. Then he goes to Norwalk, Elyria and Cleveland, O., and Pittsburgh to conduct meetings of the same character. He will begin his work at Philadelphia on January 1. Mrs. Cooper left the city this afternoon for her former home at Elyria, where her husband joins her.

In his work in this city of nearly seven years as superintendent of the mission, Mr. Cooper has done a great work. He has made the rescue mission in Fort Wayne what it is today. Many fallen men and women have been redeemed as a result of his labors and are now leading profitable lives. The Sentinel has heretofore spoken of this work of Mr. and Mrs. Cooper. They are held in high esteem by the Fort Wayne people generally and the best wishes of all go with them to their new field of labor.

SOCIETY

CHAIRMAN COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS FOR CHARITY BALL.

MRS. JOHN H. GILPIN.

There have been many things interesting to society during this week and preparations for coming social events and for Christmas and the home coming of children and other relatives for the holidays are keeping the feminine members of each household about as busy as they can be. Invitations to the wedding of Miss Florence Booker, of Washington, D. C., to William F. Peters, of this city, which will take place on Dec. 28, interested not only the many friends of the bridegroom, but friends and acquaintances of Miss Booker, as she has visited here a number of times and is greatly admired. A number of people who intend going to the Peters-Booker wedding include Miss Sadie Fleming, Mrs. Fred C. Peters, Miss Helen Peters, C. H. Pidgeon and Arthur Peters, who will be best man at his brother's wedding.

The invitations issued by Mrs. Charles Stuart Knight to the wedding of Miss Mary Knight and Frederick Evans Hoffman were something of a surprise to the friends outside of the most intimate circles. The date for the wedding is New Year's day and the hour will be 5 o'clock. Mrs. Allen Hamilton will be matron of honor and Miss Alice Knight bridesmaid to their sister. Alfred Kimmel, of New York, for many years a close friend of Mr. Hoffman, will attend the bridegroom. It will further interest the many friends of Miss Knight and Mr. Hoffman to know that they are going to Europe directly after their marriage for a three months' trip.

Informality was characteristic of an extremely pretty reception that Mrs. Stephen Morris gave this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at her home in East Jefferson street, in order that her own family and personal friends, as well as many young folks, could meet her son, Stephen Morris, Jr., who is home from Denver, Col., for a visit. Mrs. Morris was assisted in receiving by her son and by Mrs. Robert Morris. A number of young women who dispensed hospitality in the dining room were Mrs. Lisle Tucker, Miss Jessie Orr, Miss Alice Warden, Miss Hester Bash, Miss Clara Thimo, Miss Ignatia White. In the living room were family relatives, all of whom contributed to the cheerful ness of the afternoon. They were Mrs. Samuel L. Morris, Mrs. Percy Olds, Miss Mary Morris, Mrs. Clara Croxton, Mrs. Horace Granger, Miss Woodworth, Mrs. Ernest Kampe and Mrs. Addison Holworth. The house presented a lovely appearance with a decoration of holly and red bells that were hung in the doorways, from the chandeliers and gave a touch of color to the window draperies. Along the top of the bookcases across one end of the room stood vases of red carnations and in the dining room were red hooded candles and a basket of red roses to decorate the prettily laid table. The decorations were very artistic and suggestive of the holiday season. Invitations were extended to nearly two hundred guests. Mrs. Morris entertains the assisting ladies and an equal number of gentlemen at dinner after the reception.

Mrs. C. M. Dawson has issued invitations to the members of the Woman's Reading club and to other friends, to meet Miss Elizabeth Johnson, next Wednesday afternoon, and celebrate the anniversary of her birth.

Miss Nora E. Garman, of Hometown, is going to Texas soon to spend some weeks with a brother living there.

Mrs. R. Crist, of Lansing, Mich., is visiting her son, Rev. W. A. Crist and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerr Murray Cressler left today for Peoria, Ill., where Mrs. Cressler will remain during the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Nelson.

Elmer L. Weil is coming home next week from school at Andover, Mass., to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. L. Weil.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pidgeon are going to Jamestown, O., next week to remain over Christmas with relatives of Mr. Pidgeon.

Mrs. Paul N. Turner, who has been spending some weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sperry, will leave tomorrow for New York city.

Miss Anna Poole and Miss Ruth Evans, both students in a training school for kindergarten teachers in Toledo, O., are coming home next week for the holidays.

Mrs. H. A. Philley left today for Duluth, Minn., to visit her daughter, Constance, who is going to the Pacific coast

Charity ball is one of the chief topics of interest as the day approaches for it and the fact that it will be given after Christmas—the next day to be exact—instead of earlier makes it possible for more people to attend it. Minnet hall has been selected for the ball and as usual Hope hospital is to be the beneficiary. That fact in itself appeals to many people who do not care especially for the social affair. But there are many who will attend for the mere pleasure of going to arrangements this year are to be elaborate in every way and the hall itself is particularly easy of access and has a dancing floor that is perfection. Mrs. John Gilpin as chairman of the committee on arrangements is bending every effort towards the successful accomplishment of every detail necessary for the beauty of the ball and the enjoyment of the patrons. In this work

Mrs. Gilpin has the cooperation of Miss Lowry, president of the Woman's committee of Hope hospital; Mrs. George Biers, wife of the president of the hospital; Miss Logan, superintendent of the hospital, and a committee of young women who are to assist in arranging decorations, printing of programs, etc. The physicians who have the needs of the city hospital most at heart are bending their efforts in the direction of patronage for the ball, while the fact that Hope hospital is independent of any religious organization makes the appeal even stronger. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock and will open with a grand march. (G. F. Trier is to be floor manager and he also furnishes a large orchestra for the music. Supper will be served about 11 o'clock in the balcony supper room.

soon with "In the Deep Purple" company to be gone several months.

S. C. Dickey, of Winona Lake, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. K. Hackett for over Sunday. Mrs. Dickey has been here visiting her sisters, Mrs. Hackett and Mrs. John Rogier, for a number of days.

Capt. and Mrs. Isaac D'Esay will leave on Monday for Cincinnati to remain holiday week with their daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans Lippincott and children.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Weil will spend the Christmas holiday in Terre Haute with relatives and will be joined there by their son, Elmer, who will first attend a ball in St. Louis.

Miss Allice McPhail entertained a number of high school boys and girls very informally at bridge on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Grace Yennor, who is here to spend the Christmas holidays with friends. The house was prettily decorated with carnations and roses and prizes were won by Miss Marie Tolley and Bob Donaldson.

Mrs. Nora B. Hughes is to have a reunion of her children at Christmas time. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Inglis and children, of Detroit, are expected the latter part of the coming week and the Misses Edith and Gladys Hughes will come from New York for the holiday season. Mrs. Hughes' son, Herbert, who has been in Paris for some time, is also expected home.

Miss Grace Mulligan, of 301 East Woodland avenue, entertained in honor of her cousin, Miss Marie Schaffer, of Chicago, yesterday afternoon in a manner that delighted the entire company. The guests took their sewing and visited as their fingers worked on Christmas gifts. There were present to enjoy this pleasant time Misses Clara McLehine, Helen Curdes, Margaret Reader, Jessie Orrock, Mary Menefee, Eva Smith, Mabel Smith, Ruth Riker and Verne Bowser.

Master Victor Saffen, of 1406 Mampee avenue, reached the fifth anniversary of his birth yesterday and celebrated in honor of the day by entertaining a few young friends. A peanut contest was one of the things enjoyed and the prizes were won by Dorothy Shuck and Walter Doenges. Other games and music were a part of the entertainment. In serving supper Mrs. Saffen was assisted by the Misses Emma Engelking and Esther Saffen. Pretty souvenirs were given to the children, who were Edith and Margaret Saffen, Dolphine Weber, Ruth Gotsch, Helen Hoffmann, Clarence Gebhard, Frank Weber, Theodore and Eugene Gotsch. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Al Hoffmann and Mr. and Mrs. C. Gotsch.

Mrs. August Zollinger, of 701 Washington boulevard east, was given a pleasant surprise in celebration of her sixty-fifth birthday anniversary on Wednesday afternoon. A fine luncheon was served and a good time was enjoyed by all present, who were Messrs. James Bosch, Herk, Swartz, Affenrue, Hoffmann, Roth, Berleann, Zink, Well, Zell, Wissell, Ferkel, Venture, Baudel, Belzer, Meyer, Gonthier, Kaiser, Wegman, Peters, Hockmeyer, Hesser, Hesser, Liebman, Muhlenbruck, Hesser, May Zollinger, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Zollinger, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zollinger and Mr. and Mrs. George Fries and Misses Georgia and Emma Fries, Henrietta and Josephine Hesser and Mathia Ziemendorf.

Bailey-Fansler. Mrs. Allice Fansler and Mr. John Bailey, both of DeKalb county, were married at the home of Mr. Barney Hoffmeyer, five miles south of Garrett, on Thursday, Dec. 14, at 8 o'clock in the evening. The bride was Miss Allice Fansler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fansler, of DeKalb county, Ga. The groom was Mr. John Bailey, of DeKalb county, Ga. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Fansler.

the presence of the bride's sister, Miss Mary I. Tilden, and Miss Nora E. Garman. The wedding took place in the new, pretty bungalow which the bridegroom built this summer in West Main street, Hometown, and which he had cosily furnished and had ready for occupancy at the time of the wedding. The bride was tastefully attired in a muslin and gold fringe. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Charles Tilden and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. Israel Hollopeter. Both bride and groom are highly regarded. The bridegroom is agent for the G. R. & I. railroad at Hometown.

COMING MUSICAL EVENTS.

Ohio Wesleyan University Glee club on Dec. 27, Madame Nordica and Myron W. Whitney on Jan. 10 and the Apollo club concert with Ellison Van Hoose, a tenor singer, on Jan. 23, are the biggest musical events on the list of the next five weeks. The University Glee club will appear in the Wayne Street M. E. church under the auspices of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. and the proceeds of the quarters thus received will be devoted to the foreign work subscription of the local association. The coming of Madame Lillian Nordica is arousing great interest for this is the first engagement of the great prima donna to sing in this city. Mr. Whitney's fine reputation as a basso is known to musical people and anticipation in hearing him is nearly equal to that of hearing the great soprano. The Apollo club promises a treat in its own work as well as in the soloist the club presents. Mr. Van Hoose is a great tenor, great enough to be engaged by Henry W. Savage to sing in his production of "The Girl From the Golden West" and to sing in grand opera.

WHERE THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT RULES

The Trenkley & Koerber Store Reflects the Cheer of the Season.

In spite of the fact that there is not an orthodox Christmas decoration in the store, in spite of the fact that the weather has been anything but "Christmasy," you are bound to catch the Christmas spirit by stepping into the Trenkley & Koerber store, your own Christmas shop.

This store is comfortably filled at all hours of the day, and in the afternoon is even crowded with happy seekers after yuletide remembrances. A jewelry store, such as this is essentially a gift store. Scarcely an article here but would make a suitable present for someone, and there is so much on the shelves that everyone can find something for all his friends.

The wise Christmas shopper who has been prevented from getting all the shopping done before this will do well to hie herself to Trenkley & Koerber's. There are innumerable suggestions for those who simply don't know what to get.

HOUSEHOLD HELPS.

Wooden bedsteads are again the fashion. They should be wiped over every three months with turpentine to keep them perfectly clean.

White enameled furniture will clean perfectly, and only needs care. Rub all very dirty marks with a flannel dipped in methylated spirits, and wipe dry. Next wash the furniture with soap and warm water. Do not use soda or any kind of scouring soap. Dry carefully, and then rub with a flannel dipped in whitening and polish with a leather.

An eiderdown quilt may be washed in a lather. Rinse it carefully, and then shake it well before hanging out in the wind. While drying, shake several times and it will be like new.

To whiten wooden floors add two table-spoonfuls of paraffin to the hot, soapy water used for washing a floor. It will cleanse the boards, and will also destroy any insects that may be lurking in the cracks of the wood.

The best way to clean patent leather shoes is, after removing all the dirt, to wipe them over with a soft cloth dipped in milk. Polish with a dry cloth, and you will have a bright polish, besides preserving the leather.

THE GIRLS FROM OUT OF THE CITY

Influences of the Home Thrown Around Employees of Factory.

MODEL CLUB HOUSE

In the ranks of the manual labor in the factories of Fort Wayne there are approximately 5,000 women—women and girls, the large majority of them coming under the last named age class “girls”—and of the girls so employed very many come from the towns and cities in this vicinity and the country hereabout. An official of one of the large women-employing industries in Fort Wayne said to The Sentinel reporter that probably one-tenth of the factory women employees in the city were girls who came here from other places to take the work in which they were engaged.

It is a step taken fraught with danger, especially to the younger of their sex. Coming from the country or from country towns to a city to live has its dangers for young women. It has greater dangers for young women. The city has its many evil influences. On every hand there are temptations to go wrong. There are gilded paths that promise present and future happiness, but which only lead to ruin so often and so often. And this is more likely to be the case if the girl coming to the city has no home-protecting influences thrown about her—somebody to shape her ways, a kindly hand to guide and guard her, a home in which there are true parental and home surroundings.

It is to a home of the latter character that the girls from out of town come when they take employment at the Wayne Knitting mills and see fit to make her home in the dormitory building which the mill management has especially provided for that purpose—one of the finest and best equipped of that character there is west of Central Ohio. This home, called the club house, has heretofore been spoken of in detail in The Sentinel, it having been a feature of the mill for over a year. The purpose in speaking of it now is only by way of introduction to what is here said about the “dormitory girls,” a group of whom is shown above—the girls who room and board in the mill club house, who make it their home.

There are sixty of these dormitory girls. At the time the picture was taken there were only forty-six of the girls present, the others being absent from work for the day and out of the city. The occasion was the observance of the eighteenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Y. Gross, the superintendent and the matron of the mill club house.

The scene of the anniversary gathering was the reception room of the club house. The time was Monday, the 13th of November. Mrs. Gross calls the girls “our family,” but their names are not Gross by any means, as witness the following: Alta Prugh, Anna Ring, Mirwood Wendell, Bertha Campbell, Clementine Gerard, Fern Lembeck, Adeline Stroup, Victoria Meyer, Laura Hughes, Gertrude Wilhelm, Mabel Wyant, Ida Gregg, Cora Hosack, Alice Henselen, Myrtle Ashton, Bessie Morris, Katherine Ring, Edith Bloom, Grace Christy, Grace Rader, Ollie Smith, Effie Dieter, Margaret Ring, Emma Kline, Emma Wilhelm, Hattie Akers, Alvirra Morris, Anna Kintner, Frida Zeek, Winnie McCracken, Flossie Hughes, Veronica Johnston, Lura Campbell, Louisa Wiedman, Stella O’Leary, Anna Byrnski, Loretta Blair, Olive Smith, Carrie Quigley, Glenn Eaton, Gertrude Nethercut, Margaret Johnston, Pricilla Slater, Celia Smith, Ethel Lehr and Rena Thompson.

The positions of the girls in the picture, commencing at the top row and reading from left to right of each row, is as is given in the above list of names as nearly correct as the irregularity of the rows will permit the designation of the place. Mr. and Mrs. Gross are in the center of the group, Mr. Gross being on one side of the fireplace and Mrs. Gross on the other.

Is a Model Home.

This home at the club house is a model one. It is a large and modernly constructed building just across the street from the mills, 80x135 feet in dimensions, two stories and a basement. It is of brick, concrete and steel construction and fireproof throughout.

The main floor contains a large dining room equipped with tables at which 600 people can be seated, and also a lunch counter. These are for all the employees of the mill. There are also music, reading, rest and library rooms on this floor, and reception rooms for visitors.

The half basement of the building is given over to amusement rooms for the employees who desire to avail themselves of their use. There are bowling alleys, billiard and pool rooms, gymnasium card rooms and cigar stand. Two nights of the week the girls have the exclusive use of these rooms.

On the upper floor of the building is the girls’ dormitory—the home of the bachelor girls. There are single and double sleeping rooms, all steam heated, electrically lighted and furnished equal to most of the modern hotels. On this floor are also the living rooms of the superintendent and the matron. The girls have all the comforts of home life, with the conveniences of the hotel and the added protecting influences of Superintendent and Mrs. Gross, who have their best interests at heart and care for them as a kind father and mother would. It is a safe and a pleasant home for the girls who come here from other places.

And the cost is not more than the girls would have to pay for boarding in the city, where they would not have the conveniences the club house affords them. Here are the rules: Seventy-five or 80 cents a week each for a room taken by two, with 10 cents for breakfast, 15 cents for dinner and 15 cents for supper. When a meal is missed there is no charge. The reader can figure what this amounts to a week. Frequently the girls visit their homes in other cities over Saturday afternoon and Sunday. Then, of course, they pay no table board.

The Privileges Given.

Among the privileges given the dormitory girls is the use of the reception rooms and the parlor on the main floor for entertainment any evening of the week and on Sundays of her callers, and she can also accompany them to the amusement rooms on the basement floor. The parlor and reception rooms are provided with a piano and a “lanola” and the reading rooms are equipped with the daily papers and periodicals. The girls can pass their evenings as they please. There is plenty of social pleasure to keep them in the building. As one of them said:

“There is always something going on here in the way of social amusement. We have our company, our parties, our games, our dances. It is not necessary to go over to town when we are not working to seek pleasure or keep from getting lonesome. But we are not restricted about going. We can go and come as we please and many of us very frequently attend the theaters and other amusements, or go to meetings of varied character. Naturally we aim to avoid unreasonably late hours. We know that Mr. and Mrs. Gross are concerned about us. They want to know when we are out late that we are safe. One or the other of them is always awaiting our return. This is but the natural act of a devoted parent. No girl ought to object to such watchfulness of her welfare.”

There is scarcely any home privilege that the girl does not have at the dormitory building. Sewing machines are provided so that she can do her own sewing. There are facilities for her to do her own washing and ironing. She does not have to make long trips to her daily work. Her home is just across the street from her work. She saves many nickels that would otherwise be paid out for street car fare. She knows she has got a good home and she says so. It is the best factory home of any city in the west. Every visitor of the club house is an honor to Theodore F. Thiem, the president of the factory, to whose forethought and desire for the best interests of his employees are due its erection.

Superintendent and Mrs. Gross have been in charge of the girls’ dormitory and the club room building ever since 1893 was opened for use last December. It is a club house for all the employees of the Wayne Knitting mills who desire to avail themselves of its privileges. Only girls, however, can secure living rooms there. Every employee can use the amusement rooms or take meals there. Very frequently for the noon-day meal there are 350 guests seated at the tables in the big dining room. That beats any of the hotels of our city.

As superintendent and matron, Mr. and Mrs. Gross are popular with every patron of the club-house. The dormitory girls love both of them. And well they may, for both of them have at heart not only the comfort of the girls, but their welfare.

Mr. Wm. J. Fuhrman of the city has announced himself as a democratic candidate for county commissioner of the Third district. Mr. Fuhrman was born in 1868 in Preble township, Adams county, Indiana, near his parents still reside on a farm working on his father’s farm until he was twenty-one years old, then coming to Fort Wayne working at the carpenter trade. Later he engaged in the contracting business, and is at the present time one of our successful and leading contractors. Mr. Fuhrman has been a democrat all his life and has been city committeeman the past 12 years and at present time is city and county committeeman, also was state delegate when Governor Marshall was nominated. His honesty and good judgment, and his wide business experience, both in public and private life, will make him exceptionally well fitted for the duties of county commissioner.

LYRIC THEATER

The Lyric is showing a Reliance, “The Playwright,” and “Just Smile,” and a Thandhouse, “Brother Bob’s Baby.” The special feature of this picture is that the scenes are taken in New York city, natural light being used, which shows to what degree of perfection the manufacture of motion pictures have attained. Just think, for 5 cents you can see the interior of this building that cost millions of dollars—see it in the Lyric theater in Fort Wayne just as it stands in the city of New York. Wonderful, isn’t it?

A Family Supply for 50c, Saving You $2—The Quickest, Best Thing You Ever Used, or Money Refunded.

The prompt and positive results given by this inexpensive cough medicine have caused it to be used in more homes in the U. S. and Canada than any other cough remedy. It gives instant relief and will usually wipe out the most obstinate, deep-seated cough inside of 24 hours. It quickly succeeds, even in whooping cough and croup.

A 50 cent bottle of Pinex, when mixed with home-made sugar syrup, makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most pleasant and effective cough remedy that money could buy, at a saving of $2. Easily prepared in five minutes—full directions in package.

Children take Pinex Cough Syrup willingly, because it tastes good. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative—both excellent features. Splendid for hoarseness, throat tickle, bronchitis, etc., and a prompt, successful remedy for incipient lung trouble.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of imported Norway White Pine extract and is rich in gum-resin and other natural healing pine elements. Simply mix it with sugar syrup or strained honey, in a pint bottle, and it is ready for use.

Pinex has often been imitated, but never successfully, for nothing else will produce the same results. The genuine is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Certificate of guarantee is wrapped in each package. Your druggist has Pinex or will gladly get it for you.

The regular meeting of the Central Electric Railway association will be held in Fort Wayne next Thursday, at the Anthony hotel and members from all parts of the middle west will be in attendance. FLOCK OF 8,000 LAMBS IN DEAL

Big Band in Oregon is Driven More Than 100 Miles.

WEEK ON THE TRIP

Klamath Falls, Ore., Dec. 16.—What ends probably the most important sheep deal ever made in this region was the delivery here by Dave Edler, of Lakeview, of 8,000 lambs to McKendrie & Arthur, of this city. The task of driving this big band of sheep more than one hundred miles was no easy one, and several men were necessary to look after them on the road and see that they were carefully pastured when stops were made. It took about a week to make the trip.

The McKendrie & Arthur purchase has been driven to Merrill to feed for the winter, incidental to their board is the purchase of 125,000 pounds of ground feed and 500 tons of hay, which with hay retailing at $25 means a heavy outlay, even at a discount on a wholesale scale.

The care of such a band of timid quadrupeds is more than the ordinary mortal realizes. Five men will be constantly employed to look after them; a huge well will be continually pumped to supply them with water and each day the watering troughs have to be cleaned thoroughly, while the feed racks from which they eat nourishing alfalfa must be cleaned twice daily of all stems and debris.

Their temperament is carefully guarded, no dog being allowed about the corals, and no person but the keeper allowed inside them. With these keepers the "woolies" soon become acquainted, so that they can be handled without fear. The only exception to the herders allowed in the corals is the old gray mare which furnishes power for the pump, and she will stay in the corral, drinking from the same trough and feeding from the same racks as the herd, until the lambs are shipped away in the spring.

AN ALARM AT NIGHT

That strikes terror to the entire household is the loud, hoarse and metallic cough of croup. No mistaking it, and fortunate then the lucky parents who keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound on hand. H. W. Casselman, Canton, N. Y., says: "It is worth its weight in gold. Our little children are troubled with croup and hoarseness, and all we give them is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I always have a bottle of it in the house." Dreier Drug Co.

Mothers Might Learn Antidotes.

A young mother, during the infancy of her first born, set herself the task of committing to memory antidotes for the commonest poisons known, especially those that it might be possible for children to come into contact with. In addition to this, she memorized methods of aiding drowning and injured persons. In fact, learned sort of a "first aid to the injured" set of rules. Would not this be an excellent plan for all mothers?—Good Housekeeping Magazine.

WABASH WAGE MATTERS FIXED

Officials and Committee Reach Amicable Agreement on All Points.

KEKIONGA AUXILIARY ELECTS OFFICERS

Honors Mrs. W. A. Current With Position at the Head of List.

The Wabash officials and the committee representing the live crafts employed in the shops signed a wage and working condition agreement at St. Louis yesterday afternoon. The wage scale will cover the year 1922. The wage scale is the same as prevailed during the year 1921, but it is understood that there are a few minor changes in the working conditions, but not in the maximum number of working hours, which remain at fifty-four per week, with the minimum at forty per week. The shops have not been operated on the maximum working schedule for several months, but work is increasing and indications point to plenty of it for the men during the winter months. Bulletins posted yesterday announce that until further notice the men in all departments of the shops will be required to work eight hours per day, including Saturday. The wage conference have been in progress for several weeks, but have been conducted in a friendly manner and at no time was there the least semblance of friction.

The lodge will give a pedro party in its hall next Tuesday afternoon.

VICTIMS OF "SPOTTERS."

Fifteen Passenger Conductors Summarily Dismissed.

Several weeks ago the Illinois Central put "spotters" on the St. Louis, Central and Eldorado branch of the system and as a result of the labors of these men, fifteen of the passenger conductors were dismissed from the service. Some of the men let out were many years in the employ of the company, while others were new in the passenger service. These "spotters" worked in the capacity of auditors and their duties were kept "under cover" by the railroad officials. The incident created considerable anxiety among passenger conductors all over the Illinois Central system.

ENGINEER BECKER RECOVERING.

Hopes to Go Home to Participate in Xmas Festivities. Engineer R. Becker, who was so frightfully scalded at the plant of the VanArman company, May 31, that his life was despaired of for some weeks, sat up yesterday for the first time since the accident and now promises to make rapid progress towards recovery. He hopes to be able to go to his home in time to join the family at the Christmas festivities. Mr. Becker has been at St. Joseph hospital ever since the accident.

WILL BUILD WAREHOUSE.

Bowser Company Awards Contract for $10,000.

Final steps for carrying out the plans for greater warehouse facilities by S. F. Bowser & Co. were taken yesterday, when the contract was let to Fred J. Grote. Excavation for the foundations will commence next week and construction work will be pushed with all possible speed. The building will be 300x70x21 feet in dimensions and will cost approximately $10,000. It will face Holton avenue.

Fort Wayne Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, will Admit Class of More Than One Hundred Members Tomorrow

Fort Wayne lodge No. 200, Loyal Order of Moose, will admit a class of more than one hundred members tomorrow, the work beginning at its hall in the Lau block at 2 o'clock. The event will be signaled by the presence of the supreme dictator and the supreme secretary of the organization.

The lodge is believed to have broken local fraternal records in point of membership. It was instituted January 20, 1910, with a class of 501 members, and now, in less than two years, its membership has leaped up to a point above 1,200. The membership is lively and wide-awake, and its degree itself is becoming widely known for its excellent work. The team was at Huntington last evening instituting a new lodge of the order in the Line City. Presented above are portraits of three of the active workers in Fort Wayne lodge.

The supreme lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose of the world is composed of nearly 800 sister lodges with a membership of between 230,000 and 250,000. It has grown marvellously in the past four years, the membership mounting up from only 5,000 to practically half a million. Fort Wayne lodge is the largest in the state, and it has already paid out more than $2,000 in sick and funeral benefits in the less than two years of its existence.

HAS GOOD POSITION IN SOUTH.

A. W. Matthews, of the Pennsylvania lumber yards, received a letter from David Haines yesterday, in which the writer states that he is employed as a passenger brakeman on the Atlantic Coast line, running between Atlanta, Ga., and Jacksonville, Fla., with headquarters in the former city. Mr. Matthews will also go south in a week or two to take employment on that road. Mr. Haines was employed in the Pennsylvania yards up to two or three weeks ago, when he left for the south.

MEAT CUTTERS WANT HELP.

Local No. 423, Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen, has appealed to union men and members of their families to patronize only the union meat markets of the city and to insist that the union card be displayed conspicuously in the shops wherein they trade. The matter will be laid before the federation at its next meeting. The Meat Cutters' representatives in that body for 1922 will be George Bender, Christian Kessen, Frank Long, Charles Saeud and Carl Hohn.

LAMPMAKERS HAVE DANCE.

The first annual dance of the Foremen's club took place at the Minnet hall last night and was well attended. The men who had charge of the affair and acted in the various capacities required at a well regulated dance were F. Plott, Lawrence Michaels, E. B. Bresnahan, Frank Marrow, J. C. Noll, J. B. Parung, D. E. Guy and K. J. Corkey. The Foremen's club is composed of employees of the General Electric Lamp works.

S. E. KEILLOR ADVANCED.

Stewart E. Keillor, for a year or two employed in a clerical capacity at the Wabash shop offices, who resigned to take a position in British Columbia with the Canadian Northern, will take a better position with the company January 1. On that date he will become division storekeeper at Virginia, Minn. Where Mr. Keillor is now the thermometer registered 33 degrees below zero last Monday, the date of a letter received by Division Storekeeper H. W. Hurst.

SAWYER GOES TO PITTSBURG.

Frederic E. Sawyer, division freight agent of the Pennsylvania at Columbus, whose advancement was hinted at by this paper some days ago, will go to Pittsburgh as assistant to General Freight Agent J. J. Koch. He is succeeded at Columbus by Mr. Austin, formerly of Toledo. Another change, to be the transfer of H. F. Gray, Union Line agent at Indianapolis, to Marietta, as division freight agent.

COMING ON SUNDAY.

Latest advices from St. Louis is to the effect that the new Wabash directors will not make a trip over the lines west of St. Louis at this time and they will pass through this city some time tomorrow on the return trip to New York. They were to come Monday evening.

HAD SHOULDER BROKEN.

C. Bloom, employed in the Pennsylvania car machine shop, sustained a fracture of the left collar bone yesterday afternoon. While he was at his work, a man pushing a cart ran against and knocked down a ladder, which struck Mr. Bloom in its descent. He will be unable to work for some time.

POSTPONE BIG MEETING.

The Carpenters' union announces a postponement of the opening meeting until Thursday evening, January 18. The meeting was to have been held last Thursday evening, but the annual election falls on that date, hence the postponement.

At the meeting of the supreme lodge held at Baltimore, Md., in 1910, there was a committee appointed to arrange for collecting the sum of $250,000 for the purpose of purchasing a site and erecting suitable buildings for a national

Moose institute and a national home for the aged and infirm, and a home for the widows and orphans, and at the last meeting of the supreme lodge held in Detroit, Mich., in August, 1911, this proposition was pushed farther. A board of trustees was selected, which board is now in session at Washington, D. C., for the purpose of completing the purchase of one of the sites now being examined and to further the completing and erection of the buildings. The Moose institute will be in the form of an industrial college.

ENDS DYSPEPSIA IN TEN MINUTES

Heartburn, Gas, Indigestion and All Stomach Misery Vanishes.

There would not be a case of indigestion here if readers who are subject to stomach trouble knew the tremendous anti-ferment and digestive virtue contained in Diapiesin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the sourdest acid stomach in five minutes, besides overcoming all foul, nauseous odors from the breath.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Diapiesin, then you will readily understand why this promptly cures indigestion and removes such symptoms as Heartburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, Belching of Gas and Brachations, Undigested food, water brash, Nausea, Headache, Biliousness and many other bad symptoms; and, besides, you will not need laxatives to keep your stomach, liver and intestines clean and fresh.

If your Stomach is sour and full of gas, or your food doesn't digest, and your meals don't seem to fit, why not get a 50-cent case from your druggist and make life worth living? Absolute relief from stomach misery and perfect digestion of anything you eat is sure to follow five minutes after, and besides, one 50-cent case is sufficient to cure a whole family of such trouble.

Surely, a harmless, inexpensive preparation like Diapiesin, which will always either at daytime or during night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house.

Be always energetic in something useful. Be active.—Franklin.

Officers of Old Fort Council, No. 192, Royal League, Fort Wayne

A. D. Bohn, warden; Fred G. Fleming, prelate. Second row—Max G. Zeissig, guide; Theodore H. Bohn, vice archon; John B. Brown, archon; James A. Major, orator; John T. Leach, treasurer. Upper row—Peter Williams, scribe; C. R. Bookwalter, collector; Charles W.

Neireiter, scribe; H. A. Stahl, trustee. While one of the youngest fraternal orders of the country, the Royal League is also one of the strongest according to the rating given it by insurance experts. Old Fort council was instituted on October 28, 1899, with 88 charter members, included in the list being the officers shown in the above half-tono picture. The council now has a membership of upwards of 250. During the existence of the Royal League it has paid in death claims $7,803,54.60 and in disability claims $302,025, and has a reserve fund of $2,126,958.06.

OLDEST CHICAGO NEWSBOY IS DEAD

George Bennett, Aged 65, Left a Hoard of $20,000.

CAN FIND NO HEIRS

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 16.—George Bennett, whose sixty-five years made him the oldest downtown newsboy, was buried yesterday at Roschill. He lived the life of a miser in a cheap lodging house. Public Administrator John A. Devine values his estate at $20,000. He cannot find an heir.

For more than a quarter of a century

George was a loop character. Other newsies remember he was carrying his private route when they began hustling twenty years ago. How long before that time he was delivering papers no one seems to know.

His 500 customers in office buildings east of Clark street and between Randolph and Van Buren streets learned of his death on Monday through his two helpers. They have automatically succeeded him. He kept no books. His assistants alone know those whom he served. That is why they are heirs to his trade, for which he reputedly was offered a thousand dollars.

Always Dressed in Rags

George was always dressed in rags. No one ever saw him squander a nickel. He frequented lunch counters, where a meal is exchanged for a dime. Yet Charles Aaron of the public administrator's office found the bundle of $20,000 securities tucked carefully away in a safety deposit box in the Masonic temple vaults. George lived at the Harrison hotel for nearly thirty years. For $3 a month he got a sparsely furnished room. He "flopped" on a pair of blankets spread on ragging springs. An oil lamp furnished the artificial light. In George's trunk Aaron found a key to the safety deposit box which held the dead man's wealth.

Owned $10,000 in Real Estate.

It consisted of deeds to six lots, one at 2042 Racine avenue, improved with two-story dwelling—total value, $10,000; 26,000 shares Federal Mines and Reduction company, cost $8,250; 3,000 shares Silverton Gold Bug Mining company, cost $1,500; seventy-five shares Niles Heater and Manufacturing company, valued at $750; promissory notes for $1,200; a count of $500 with Union Trust company.

The only link connecting George with relatives is a time-yellowed letter found in his trunk. It is headed Plimpton, O., and dated April 10, 1873. It was written by Mrs. C. M. Lovett, evidently a married sister. She wrote:

"Mother feels bad about your not writing. She was talking about you the other evening and cried. She thinks you don't care for her any more. She is growing old and falling fast. If you do not write to her soon it will be too late."

That was thirty-eight years ago. Inquiry during the day failed to discover any relatives in Plimpton.

"BEST ON EARTH"

This is the verdict of R. J. Howell, Tracy, O., who bought Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for his wife. "Her case was the worst I have ever seen, and looked like a sure case of consumption. Her lungs were sore and she coughed almost incessantly and her voice was hoarse and weak. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought relief at once and less than three bottles effected a complete cure." Without opiates or harmful drugs of any kind Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops coughs and cures colds. Do not accept any substitutes. Dreier Drug Co.

To a counsel arguing before him at Clerkenwell (Eng.) county court, Judge Edge remarked: "Let me tell you a story of a case in which as counsel I appeared before Mr. Justice Mellor. I had used my strongest arguments, and thinking I was not convincing him I used some weak arguments afterward. Mr. Justice Mellor said to me: 'Now Mr. Edge, don't put too much water in your brandy.'"

AT THE MAJESTIC.

This Evening—"St. Elmo."
Wednesday Matinee and Night—"Buster Brown."

"ST. ELMO"

At the Majestic This Evening for the Last Time.

"St. Elmo," a romantic drama, has been given the universal stamp of popularity.

"BUSTER BROWN" DAY

There is hardly any need to explain just what "Buster Brown" will be doing Lillian Nordica, Famous Singer, Coming to Majestic.

Jay approval at the Majestic this week, where the play will close an engagement of three days tonight.

"St. Elmo" is Willard Holcomb's dramatization of the world famous novel of the same name, by Augusta Evans Wilson, a story which has fascinated its thousands of readers. The company presenting the play is Vaughan Glaser's, which has a reputation for artistic ability and a revelation in stage equipment.

The story deals with a southern romance of the fifties, and it has lost none of its interest in the dramatization made by Mr. Holcomb. It holds its audience in wrapt attention from first to last.

The play of "St. Elmo" represents a departure from the ordinary lines of melodrama in its class and refinement. The story in book form contained so much of dramatic interest that it is a wonder that the author was not persuaded years before to permit its adaptation to the stage. The story plays strongly upon one's sympathy and the dramatization does likewise.

The play depicts the life of St. Elmo, a cynic upon the surface of his nature. Bitter experiences in his life have made him assume a distrust of all save his mother. Into his life, filled with unhappiness he will not own, comes the love of a girl, pure and true. She hates the hard cynicism which St. Elmo has built about himself, but underneath this she sees, half despite herself, his better nature. The task set for the turbulent, fiery young man is to sheer off the dross of his nature. This he does and wins the girl.

at the Majestic on Wednesday matinee and night. This lad, who is itching to be spanked, is so widely known and has captivated with Tige and Mary Jane so often on the local stage, that comment is unnecessary. Suffice to say that he will return with a few new faces in his immediate family and a new play entirely new musical numbers and specialties. There are Buster, Tige, Mary Jane, Pa, Ma, Auntie, Grandma and two new characters, Seth Sowders and Miranda Stebbins, and other familiar characters, creating as usual upsurges of mirth. Tige continues one of the chief sources of hilarity, and as one critic expressed it, "The antics of that canine would certainly make a horse laugh."

The present production of "Buster Brown" is supplied with some of the best music that the piece has ever had, introducing one of the most novel features in musical comedy. "The Billiken Man," the "Buster Brown" ponies representing the "Billiken" dolls one sees in the shop windows, and they are real cunning in this number and a delight to the children. Master Harold, as Buster, and little "Kitty Lacey" as Susie, D. J. Murphy as the comical Tige, and all the other roles in competent hands, make up a cast of exceptional ability. The large chorus is composed of beautiful laughing, dancing maidens, whose grace and manner augment this otherwise and altogether delightful entertainment.

"DRIFTWOOD."

It is chronicled that the new play

AN ALL STAR BILL At The Temple Next Week

Four Rianos "In Africa," Top the Big List of Features.

Some great shows have been at the Temple this season, but the coming week's bill, the management declares, will be by far the best ever brought to this city—every act on the bill a headliner, and such a grand array of stars were never before brought together in a city of this size. Topping the list of features will be the Four Rianos, in the biggest laughing sensation of the season entitled, "In Africa." This act is a positive guaranteed cure for the worst sort of blues. You not only laugh, but scream at the antics of these clever comedians.

Belle Adair, "the dainty girl singing comedienne," is another of the features. Mr. Ashton Stevens, in the Chicago Examiner, has the following to say of Miss Adair: "Girl alone on the stage! Shares honors with top liners. Belle Adair and her songs are the real novelty act at the Majestic this week. If you are drawn to the Majestic this week I advise you to be drawn early, for the novelty is in the fourth number. She is Miss Belle Adair. That's her novelty. So simple you will hardly believe it. A dark, handsome young girl in a tailor suit comes on the apron of the stage to sing songs without adjuncs. They are not classical songs. They are such little songs as you would hear in musical comedy. But there are no fills, no 'stage management,' no 'we comply—unpaid but willing.' That is a novelty—a young, good-looking, handsomely-clad girl alone in vaudeville, and it is a refreshing one, good to see and good to hear. How difficult is this apparently simple feat of Miss Adair's only vaudeville players themselves will thoroughly comprehend. It requires more than the ability to sing pleasingly; it requires a stage presence sufficient to control the big, restless, excitement-hunting crowd; it requires personality at once gentle and strong, and to make the hit that Miss Adair makes in one of the worst positions on the program means that she could easily hold her own with the top liners in the very heart of the bill. But if musical comedy managers are as keen as I take them to be, Miss Adair's vaudeville venture will not be of any great length."

Walsh, Lynch and company will present their original one-act play, "Huckins Run." Sam Bernard, the well known star, says: "A real surprise in the way of a dramatic sketch is 'Huckins Run,' and Walsh, Lynch and company are the ones that make it the clever act it is. I saw it twice in a week, and would like to see it again. A complete set of scenery and effects are carried by the company, and something new in stagecraft is promised the patrons of the Temple. The Orpheus Comedy Four, with Messrs. Figg, Scott, Duffy and Ford, the cleverest singing comedians either in or out of vaudeville, are on the week's splendid offering.

The Musical Norrises are originators of musical novelties and will appear in their latest success, "That 12x2 Band."

Paris Green, one of the cleverest monologue men on the American stage, is another of the features with green songs, green jokes and Green in name.

The motion pictures will, of course, be good, and Professor Dacey has arranged another of his splendid musical programs.

called "Driftwood," which will be presented at the Majestic theater Christmas week, is interesting and important from the point of social reform. Ample assurance is at hand that it is not in any respect a problem play, but rather a splendid analysis of human emotions, told in simple and sensible tongue, with a candor that makes the flesh creep.

It's the tale of a friendless, penniless young woman apparently deserted in a strange city by the man she loves, and her resultant unequal struggle against her dreadful fate—men wherever she turns who plan her ruin.

The story is a picture of a vital question in our present social conditions that is just now receiving special thought from eminent students of social economy, the like of which has caused untold suffering and sadness in the hearts of thousands of young women and girls who are obliged to earn their living, where wages are insufficient for the demands of the simple necessities of life.

We talk of our highly civilized state and our enlightened conditions, yet these things exist. And our women have been robbed of the one protection that could save them, the brute instinct of manual combat, by this selfsame modern civilization.

It is said that this play offers a wonderfully convincing portrayal of the characters that would naturally be involved; the struggling woman; her girlhood sweetheart; the man about town that becomes her captor; the kind, but simple folk that would rescue her, and the forgiving sister that finally comes to her assistance.

And besides, it is promised that the narrative is copiously punctuated with wholesome humor that brightens but in no way clouds the theme.

An unusually proficient company of players will appear, headed by Miss Ollie Cooper and including Misses Gertrude Fowler, Bertha Welby, Reno Chapleau and Messrs. James Rennie, Robert Frazer, Harry Cowley, William Weston, James Cornican and John Richards. A special new and complete production is assured.

another accompanying her. The visit was made on a matinee day, and the prima donna, to spare herself, deputized her sister to receive them. Regretting a lost opportunity, the aspirant started to sing. Before she had got very far a door opened softly, then was thrown open, and Miss Tietjens entered. In her enthusiasm she took the accompanist's place at the piano. "Work ahead and you will be great," she said simply. Being warmly hearted, she added: "When you come to London, I will help you." That friendly offer was, unfortunately, never realized, for Miss Tietjens died not long after. While they were talking a little old lady came in, a limping at that time in the orchestra. Mrs. Martezok, widow of the impresario. She had been a prima donna. Her interests took a practical turn. "Come to me on Staten Island next summer," she generously offered, "and I will coach you in your roles." That summer she studied twenty roles. In the autumn she came out in concert in New York with Brignoli, and in the early spring following was fairly launched on her career as soloist with Gilmore's band, an organization ranking with Sousa's. The test was strenuous for one so young; often two concerts a day, and arduous travel, for they toured the whole country. Gilmore, with his warm Irish heart, recognizing her gifts as well as her pluck, once exclaimed: "You will yet be crowned queen of song in your own country." Years later, Mrs. Nordica recalled his words, when a diamond tiara from American admirers was passed over the footlights to her at the Metropolitan opera house in New York.

Mrs. Nordica comes to the Majestic on January 10.

CANADA THRONE
SOLD TO PEDDLER

Unique Transaction When Furniture is Put Up at Auction.

IT BROUGHT BUT $4

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 16.—A genuine throne, intended for British royalty, has just been sold at auction to a peddler for $4. This unique transaction took place at Rideau hall, the vice regal residence here, when the old furniture was sold under the hammer to make room for new articles that will be placed in the hall owing to the coming of the duke of Connaught as governor general.

Included in the articles disposed of were curtains, screens, old state sideboards and state chairs that had been used by Princess Louise, daughter of the late Queen Victoria, when she was at Government House years ago, and by the Marquis of Lansdowne, Lord Monck, the earl and countess of Minto and Earl and Countess Grey. In view of the Connaught regime new furniture is being sought.

A hand carved black walnut sideboard, twenty-five feet long, which would make a good load for a four horse team, brought just $7. It probably cost $700.

A dray load of visitors' books in which were the names of callers at Government House for years back brought twenty-five cents each.

Charters of all Canadian banks expire
July, 1912, according to the provisions of the law requiring decimal revision. It is announced today that the government will not revise the act this session but will present a bill extending the charters for another year. The subject is one of keen interest in Canadian financial circles and strong representations are being made in favor of radical reforms. In view of two recent failures it is probable that when the act is remodelled its provisions will be more stringent. New rules respecting foreign loans are also proposed.

This Is the Store of One Price and Plain Figures

This does not mean much to the uninitiated, but it means a whole lot to those who know. Unless the price is fair, having one price in plain figures would be worse than having two prices, for no one would buy. We are not afraid of our prices—but invite comparison with any kind of competition, well knowing that you can go to a store where prices are marked in characters and have some things quoted to you surprisingly cheap—especially so, if you are only looking around; but when you come to buy it is different, and it is "delivering the goods" that counts.

You Get More for Your Money at This Store Than Anywhere Else in the City

This is a fact that is proved every day of the week and every hour of the day, and it is further proved that this house is superior from every point of view. We resort to no subterfuge in the sale of our goods.
We indulge in no "switching" of the customer from an advertised article to a higher-priced one, and
WHAT YOU BUY YOU GET—and you get all that you are entitled to, and sometimes more.

We accommodate our customers in every possible way. We will do anything within reason to please our trade.

Why Men Who Were Weak, Weary and Despairing Are Getting Well By My Treatments

Secret of My Marvelous Cures

In two words the secret is told—EXPERIENCE, EQUIPMENT! For more than fourteen years my single work of life has been the treating of men's special diseases. And now, in my suite of offices, I have the best and most modern equipment in the state! Combining my wide experience with this highly scientific equipment of the latest appliances of medical science, I offer men at my offices the one sure, safe, QUICK way back to health!

E. W. MORELAND M. D.
Specialist

Who treats successfully all Chronic, Nervous and Special Diseases.

GET CURED

Weakness and Disease were formerly looked upon as very unfortunate conditions, because patients did not know where to go for relief, or because medical science had discovered no positive cure for them, but in this age of medical advancement there are few diseases but that will yield to science and skilled treatment such as I use. Since the age of SPECIALISM people readily know where to go for relief. If they remain uncured it is their own fault, and others have but little sympathy for them. In fact, there is an unpleasant aura about those diseased which causes people to shun them. There is an attraction about robust health that draws those of your circle of acquaintances to you. There is a joy about health that must be experienced in order to be appreciated. The satisfaction of being able to look every man and woman in the eye, knowing that your affliction is gone, is worth more than can be valued in dollars to one who has been afflicted. To get cured is not only a duty that you owe yourself, but one you owe your family, your country, your neighbor and your God. I have made a special study of the Nervous System, and have perfected methods that will cure PELVIC DISEASES. I will give you a searching and thorough examination, thus determining the exact location and nature of the disease. I have the most complete and thoroughly equipped office in the city for the cure of Pelvic Diseases. In fact, I am the only exclusive PELVIC SPE-CIALIST in the city, limiting my practice to the treatment and cure of but FIFTEEN DISEASES, viz: Rupture, Piles, Fistula, Prostatitis, Cystitis, Obstructions, Knotty Veins or Varicocele, Hydroceles, Blood Poison, Nervous Debility, Atrophy, Kidney, Acquired and Specific Diseases.

THE TREATMENT I have used in curing many others who had the diseases and symptoms mentioned below is exactly what I will give you and that YOU ARE SURE TO BE CURED BY TAKING.

VARICOCELE-ENLARGEMENTS—My treatment cure will cause the enlargement or knotty-like condition or varicocele, to at once disappear. I do it without cutting and all symptoms are soon gone.

NERVOUS DEBILITY, FUNCTIONAL DECLINE—If you are weak, nervous, have lost vitality, back pains, no strength or ambition, I can quickly relieve you of all such symptoms of weakness and make you strong.

KIDNEY COMPLAINTS—The majority of these cases I treat are benefited so fast they are cured before they expect it. They don't come back for treatment after I dismiss them—it's a permanent cure.

BLOOD POISON—Treatment for only a short time cures rash, swellings, sore mouth and throat, pains, aches, removes every sign and symptom—it stays cured, and I can assure you the treatment is not ordinary mercury and potash, like other specialists give you.

RUPTURE CURED—The majority of cases cured in a few treatments without cutting, pain or risk. Ninety per cent of Surgical Operations are failures. My records show a perfect cure in 95 per cent of cases treated.
I know you will think it impossible to cure ruptures as I do. Let me prove it by what I have done. It will be the happiest time of your life when you return home cured.

FISTULA, PILES—I can cure you so quickly and easily that you will be surprised. I will give you just the result and cure you are looking for without a surgical operation. INHERITED, ACQUIRED AND SPECIFIC DISEASES—Scientifically and quickly cured. No bad results following. If you have been disappointed elsewhere, let me cure you to stay cured.

OBSTRUCTIONS—My cure dissolves obstructions completely, allays all inflammation, cleanses and heals the bladder and kidneys when irritated or congested and restores health and soundness to all parts affected by the disease.

INVESTIGATE my ability, distinctive methods and reasonable charges before placing your case elsewhere.

HOURS—9 to 12 A. M., 1 to 5 P. M.
EVENINGS, 7 to 8.
SUNDAYS, 9 to 1 ONLY.

BIG ESTATE YET IN A LEGAL NET

Fortune Already Tied Up
12 Years Far from Distribution.

$800,000 IS INVOLVED

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 16.—In an effort to establish Louis Levy, a San Francisco plumber, as sole heir to the $800,000 estate of Capt. Julius Friedman, the twelve-year contest over which was submitted to Judge Thomas F. Graham in the probate department of the superior court, a week ago, Mrs. Amelia Lowenberg has filed a sensational affidavit with the court.

Not only does she claim intimate acquaintance with Captain Friedman for many years prior to his death by introduction through "the old Claus Spreckles," the affidavit reads, but also contends that a maid in the Palace hotel told her that Mr. Friedman was murdered for her wealth by giving him a sleeping powder, and that he died sitting in a chair in his room.

In the time of their acquaintance, Mrs. Lowenberg says, Mr. Friedman told her the history of his life and she told him hers. She says he told her he had a sister, Sophie, somewhere in the world, who married a man named Levy. This couple, she says Mr. Friedman told her, had a son, Louis, then ten years of age, whom he wished to have with him to protect him from persons threatening his life to get his fortune.

She alleges that Mr. Friedman told her that his life had been threatened aboard his own ship and for that reason he was forced to sell the vessel.

She declares that Mr. Friedman often wished he could find Louis Levy and announced his intention, if the search were successful, of leaving Louis Levy his entire fortune.

Mrs. Lowenberg asserts that on June 20 last she was walking in Market street, near Golden Gate avenue, when she looked up and thought she saw Julius Friedman before her. Then she says she knew she had found the long lost nephew. The young man was not in court.

GIRL WILL CLAIM OLE BULL'S ISLE

Beautiful Estate in Norway

WILL BE MEMORIAL

Boston, Mass., Dec. 16.—Mr. Ralph S. Bartlett, who as counsel for Mrs. Olea Bull Vaughan, only child of the late Ole Bull, the famous violinist, successfully contested the will of Mrs. Bull in the probate court of York county, Maine, last summer, left on board the steamship Franconia for Liverpool on his way to file Mrs. Vaughan's will at Bergen, Norway.

Mr. Bartlett is executor for the will of Mrs. Vaughan, and he and Miss Amelia Shapleigh, of West Lebanon, Me., are co-trustees for Sylvia Vaughan, the adopted daughter of Mrs. Vaughan and the principal beneficiary under Mrs. Vaughan's will.

The reason that the will of Mrs. Vaughan is to be offered for record in Bergen is that the only foreign real estate which she possessed is the Island of Lysoen, near Bergen. Ole Bull owned this island, which is said to be one of the most beautiful in the world. It is in a fjord about twenty-two miles from Bergen and consists of about 700 acres of land, largely forest. Ole Bull in his lifetime developed two fresh water lakes and a cave and laid out twenty miles of paths on the island.

Lysoen was left by Mrs. Vaughan to the little Swiss girl, Sylvia, whom she adopted a couple of years ago, but on Sylvia's death Lysoen is to be preserved by the Norwegian government as a memorial to Ole Bull.

The exact procedure which will be followed in Norway with respect to the case is a matter of uncertainty, because under the Norwegian law, no foreigner can own real estate in that country without the written consent of the king.

DON'T BE DECEIVED

Newbro's Herpicide Is the Only
Original Remedy

Just because you happen to see or hear the statement somewhere that another preparation will kill the dandruff germ, stop falling hair and is just as good as Herpicide, don't be fooled and allow yourself to be swindled out of your money.

You want Newbro's Herpicide, the remedy that has been tried, has stood the test of time and now has more satisfied users than all other similar preparations combined. An attempt to sell you something else is merely another effort to profit from the good name established by the only genuine dandruff germ destroyer.

Herpicide kills the dandruff germ, and prevents falling hair. It stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

It may be claimed that other hair remedies will do the same things, but Herpicide really does them. Its years of success prove this.

Send 10c in postage or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

All druggists sell Newbro's Herpicide. Applications may be obtained at good barber shops. Bradley Bros. are special agents for Fort Wayne. One dollar size bottles are guaranteed.

WHEN you think of Musical Instruments for Christmas Pre- sents, you surely can't help but think of the Guy Conklin Music Store.

I have everything that is made or published in the line of Instruments and Sheet Music. Instruments from a Jew's Harp down to the most perfected Player Piano.

Sheet Music from the most popular kind back to the most classical kind. The Edison Phonograph would be a gift that would be appreciated for time to come. Have the family and friends make records of their voices, and play them ten years from now; that would be a wonderful reminder of the pleasant Christmas you spent in "Nineteen Hundred and Eleven."

THE DAFFY DOODLES.—DADDY'S DREAM OF HADES WILL PROBABLY CAUSE THE "SANE CHRISTMAS SOCIETY" TO DISBAND.

The Rayo Lamp

It Never Flickers

The long winter evenings give a woman a splendid chance for sewing or embroidery; but her eyes suffer from the strain unless she has a good light.

The Rayo is the best lamp made.

It gives a strong, diffused light that is remarkably easy to the eyes. There is no glare to it; no flicker. It lights up a whole room.

The Rayo is an economical lamp, too.

You get the most possible light-value for the oil burned; and the Rayo itself is a low-priced lamp. Yet it is a handsome lamp—an ornament to any room in the house.

The Rayo Lamp is cast; lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and rewick. Made of solid brass, nickel-plated; also in numerous other styles and finishes.

Ask your dealer to show you his line of Rayo lamps; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of the

PRISONERS ON A STRIKE IN JAIL

"Thicker Soup or No Work" is Slogan in Camden, N. J. Lockup.

WILL ARBITRATE IT

Camden, N. J., Dec. 15.—With a slogan of "thicker soup or no work," thirty prisoners in the Camden county jail went on strike today. One of the regulars, who has been in there so many times he feels at home no where else, volunteered to act as walking delegate and advised the men that if the strike was not settled it was their duty to go to some other jail for the rest of the winter.

"I have been a regular prisoner here for a good many years, and some of the others spend every winter with you," the walking delegate explained to Sheriff Mowrey. "And we don't think this is a square deal. We never asked for many luxuries, but when we have soup we don't want it stinky. You can strain it through the bottom of a stiff shirt. Looks as if some one thought we would have hydrophobia if we ever got a hunk of meat."

The sheriff asked the men not to do anything rash and promised to employ no strike breakers for the present. He has nothing to do with the feeding of the prisoners, and took up the matter with Warden Logue. The warden explained that the runners who laded out the soup were holding out the meat until the prisoners would pay for the luxury. He promised to make a thorough investigation.

Meanwhile the strike is on. The strikers refused to work yesterday, and declare that they will appeal to Governor Wilson to come to the jail and see for himself that the soup is thin. There was talk, only by the prisoners, however, that the issue was one that should be arbitrated.

What a "Twister" Is.

In life insurance parlance the "twister" is that smooth-tongued emissary who goes about trying to persuade you to surrender your policy in a company with which you are perfect content, on the ground that the rival company which he represents will surely yield better results.

WANTS SPECIAL ENGINEER.

Citizens' Committee Urges Action on Grade Separation.

At a meeting of the citizens' committee held Friday evening at the Commercial club a motion was unanimously passed asking that the city council appropriate a sum sufficient to employ a competent consulting engineer for general grade separation east of Calhoun street. The following signatures are attached to the resolution, which will be presented to the council: A. S. Bond, J. C. Werkman, D. N. Foster, Louis Fox, J. White, T. P. Thiene, G. N. Haffner, G. W. Boers, W. C. Schrier, George Herman, Marx Dukes, G. M. Leslie, C. E. Mueller, J. J. Perrey, J. A. Lechler, Samuel Randolph, E. S. Baker, Henry Beadell, George J. Parrot, James W. Loney and G. H. Lakey. The sub-committee, composed of A. S. Bond, Louis Fox, Elden Baker, C. E. Mueller and J. C. Werkman, will present its report to the citizens' committee within the next week or ten days. The report promises to be extensive and considerable time is yet needed for its completion. It is expected that when the committee reports it will present a petition urging that the city council proceed with track elevation west of Calhoun street and favoring the employment of a competent engineer on the grade separations east.

MONEY FOR XMAS

Don't let the Christmas stockings of your loved ones go empty simply because you are temporarily short of money. We can help you fill them. We will loan the money, in any amount from $5.00 upward, on your Furniture, Pianos, Horses, Wagons, Fixtures or any other personal security, with out removal.

You can pay it back in weekly or monthly payments—we will arrange the time and payments any way to suit your convenience.

You may have all of next year in which to pay it back if you wish. We will also allow you liberal rebate if paid in full before due.

Let us explain our rates and methods of loaning money to you before you borrow elsewhere, as it will mean a saving for you. Office open every evening.

Courteous treatment, fair dealing and absolute secrecy guaranteed. Let us help you to a "MERRY XMAS."
